Special Dispatch to the New-York Times.

LONDON, Oct. 7.—I have received a large number of letters from the Paris correspondents of the NEW-YORK TIMES by the ordinary courier, and shall forward them by the next steamer.

THE OPPOSITION.

An extract from the latest letter from our military correspondent, dated Oct. 3, shows that the Opposition is still at work and growing bolder. They now demand the confiscation of the property of all who have left Paris, for the benefit of the national defenders, and the sequestration of the property of all the accomplices in the Bonapartist usurpation.

EXTRAVAGANT DEMAND.

The Government having been weak to yield some points to these men, they also demand the destruction of the Column of Vendome, and all the monuments pertaining to the Bonapartists.

FOOD RIOTS.

The question of food begins to be serious. Food riots have already occurred. A club of men are urging the people on, saying the provisions belong to the people of Paris, and they have a right to take them.

THE DAILY SUPPLY.

Five thousand beeves and ten thousand sheep are killed daily. This would, perhaps, be enough for all wants if a just distribution were made. Unfortunately, however, money buys the best in quality and quantity, and there is little or none left for the poor. Many groceries have been closed by the people for raising the prices. There being no forage for the horses, they are being killed for food. Charcoal and wood have nearly all failed, which is the most serious thing for the poor. Still the city may hold out some weeks longer without much suffering from famine if there was a proper organization. The Government has fixed the price of meat, and made a requisition for all the flour and wheat in the city.

WOUNDS FROM THE NEEDLE-GUN.

Speaking of the engagement at Chevilly, our Paris correspondent, writing on the 3d inst., says that Dr. Swinburne describes the wounds made by the needle-gun as terrible. The balls are larger in size than those of any other weapon used by the contending armies.

TREATMENT OF THE SANITARY CORPS.

His ambulance went further into the Prussian lines than any other, after the last battle, and was fortunate enough to fall into the hands of an intelligent Prussian regiment, or, otherwise, it might not have escaped in safety.

The officers told Rev. Mr. Lamson that if by chance he should happen to fall in with any of the Posen regiments, which are composed of ignorant fellows, they (the Prussian officers) would not answer for the consequences. As it was they were treated with the greatest courtesy.

MEAT GIVING OUT.

The Paris correspondent of the London Times writes to the evening edition of that journal that the supplies of meat are vanishing; breadstuffs are plenty, and are stored in convenient places. There is also plenty of guns, ammunitions and military stores.

THE WATER SUPPLY.

The Prussian Guard is north of Paris between the Canal de L'Ourg and the Northern Railway. On its right is stationed the Fourth Corps and on the left the Twelfth Corps. To the pioneers of the Prussian Guard has been assigned the task of diverting the waters of the Canal de L'Ourg into La Moree River. The stream falls into the Seine some miles below Paris. Should the Prussians succeed in their designs one source of the water supply of the besieged will be cut off.

SIEGE GUNS IN POSITION.

The Prussian guns are nearly all in position before Paris, and the bombardment will be commenced from all the batteries simultaneously the moment the arrangements are perfected.

A FRENCH "SWAMP ANGEL."

The great gun for Fort D'Ivry, on the south of Paris, is nearly ready to be placed in position. The range is eight kilometers, and it requires thirty-five kilogrammes of powder for each discharge.

A FIGHT IN BALLOONS.

The Nouvelles du Jour, a Belgian paper, has an ingenious, but doubtless, imaginary account of an aerial combat between Felix Tournachon Nadar, the celebrated French aeronaut, and a Prussian aeronaut. The former came off victorious.

AN UNDERGROUND RAILROAD.

LONDON, Oct. 7.—Both the Cologne Gazette and the Independence Belge assert that there is a complete underground communication to Paris and Tours. The Belgian papers intimate that the Prussians are alarmed at the approach of Winter, and are disposed to press the siege of Paris.

GOVERNOR OF VERSAILLES.

Gen. Branchitsch has been appointed Military Governor of Versailles.

SCENES IN THE CITY.

Military Aspect of the Streets—Reign of the Dangerous Classes—Receiving the News of Defeat—Gen. Burnside's Mission.

LONDON, Oct. 7.—By favor of a special messenger, news letters to Oct. 3, three days later, have this moment been received from Paris. A correspondent writes: The Tuileries are nothing but a compressed, crowded camp. Entering opposite the Hotel Maurice you note horses in long lines eating out of canvas bags. Tents are spread out and wagons are loaded with military stores, hay and straw. The soldiers lie along the rows of trees, formerly a private road to the Emperor's gardens in the Tuilleries, but now a highway of the Republic. The Champs Elysees presents the same warlike appearance. Today was the first time that it looked something like old Paris out in the streets, but it was only a spasm of short duration. All the places of amusement are closed, the theatres and gardens, everything but cafés. The shops still thrive, prices everywhere are high, and the hotels are impoverished.

THE DEFEAT AT MEUDON.

The affair at Meudon yesterday created consternation anew throughout the city, for undoubtedly the French were completely defeated. They anticipated a dislodgement from their positions of the Prussians, who are beginning to intrench the flower of their army about Paris, and the repulse of this selected assault now seems to render future assaults hopeless.

EXCITING STREET SCENES.

Since the 20th we have had many exciting scenes in Paris, though nothing of real importance has occurred. Twice in the same night an encounter took place between organized bands of ruffians and the military guard. The former broke into houses and robbed some people in the streets, although the latter are few, as no person goes out at night unless obliged to do so. The truth is that the lower classes are no better off than formerly. Being unemployed, they draw rations now, while formerly they must rob or starve. Still, the dangerous element which is fermenting below the surface may break out into a terrible convulsion should further reverses come.

POLTROONS SHOT.

The storming of the city becomes imminent. The twenty men who acted cowardly in the first engagement outside the walls were shot, three days ago. This was thought woful, but necessary for suppressing the growing spirit of disobedience and insubordination among the Mobiles and regulars.

THE NEWS OF THE FALL OF STRASBOURG.

Writing under date of Oct. 11, a correspondent says: Sunday was a short, eventful day in Paris. When the surrender of Strasbourg and Toul was known, at noon, an immense agitation prevailed. Troops lined the public thoroughfares, ready in case of tumult. Dismay and dissatisfaction were depicted on the countenances of the citizens.

DUTIES OF GEN. BURNSIDE.

Gen. Ambrose E. Burnside, accompanied by Paul Forbes, entered the French lines yesterday, bearing a flag of truce from the Prussian Head-quarters at Versailles. He is charged with a letter from Count von Bismarck to M. Jules Favre, concerning communication between the French and Prussian lines. The object of his mission is unknown, but it is believed its intention is to depress the spirit of the Parisians by letting them know the real state of affairs. Upon their arrival in Paris Gen. Burnside and Mr. Forbes went to the American Legation, and afterward had an interview with M. Favre, who called at the Legation. These communications have a marked effect upon a public so easily depressed or elated. Certainly Paris grows daily stronger and better prepared for defense. Gen. Burnside declared the fortifications to be of the most formidable character.

PRUSSIAN MOVEMENTS.

The Prussians have made several attempts to plant batteries and build redoubts in face of the bastions, bbt failed, the fire from the great guns on the ramparts and the electric lights preventing them accomplishing at night what they failed to do during the day.

TRIAL OF AMERICANS.

Mr. Washburne was compelled to abandon his house in the Avenue de l'Imperiale, the whole quarter being barricaded and undermined. He removed to the rear of the Madeline, abandoning his furniture and many valuables, including a superb portrait of Gen. Grant. The residence of the American Consul was invaded by a party of French soldiers who insisted on examining his quarters for suspicious documents. Upon Mr. Washburne's representations to Favre, Gen. Trochu immediately issued an order, prohibiting the soldiers to invade private property, without authority.

The city is divided into zones, beginning at the outer circumference, the troops having the right to the mansions.

within these belts, as declared at the option of the Government. Within these limits are most sumptuous mansions, containing people not entitled to protection. The United States hung out the stars and stripes, anxious to secure many who were compelled to strike false colors. The Minister of the King of Holland is one of these. The Ministry have declared their inability to furnish more arms at present.

THE IMPERIAL CORRESPONDENCE.

The Imperial correspondence is daily exposing the rottenness of the Empire and intrigue. Recent papers show that de Girardin, the bitter satirist of the Emperor, was thought of for Senator. The assassination plot turns out to have been a cooped-up job. The baptism of the Prince Imperial cost 800,000 francs. All the Americans will leave Paris with Mr. Washburne, should he go. They have already registered their names at the embassy. One balloon company has been formed to take passengers out of the city at 2,000 francs each, and many persons have already secured places.

The French captured twenty prisoners, including one of Prince Albert's couriers.

The road between this place and Toury is thronged with the National Guard. There is much enthusiasm in this section of France.

RISING IN THE VOSGES.

The journals say there is a general rising in the Vosges. There are no regular troops there, but all the men are aroused. Francs-Tireurs are in all the passes, and give no quarter to the enemy, whom they harass night and day, stopping their convoys and cutting their communications and roads.

Telegraphic communication with that point is interrupted, and also to the eastward. [Gisors, in the Department of Eure, is on the River Epte, thirty-three miles north-east of Evreux, and about the same distance south-east of Rouen. In the middle ages it was a fortress of importance, but its old ramparts have been converted into public walks.]

BILLIARDS.

The Championship—Rudolphe Defeats Dion—A Splendid First Half, but a Poor Finish.

The long-pending match for the billiard championship between A. P. Rudolphe and Joseph Dion, was played, last night, at Apollo Hall. It was in every sense—at all events for the first half—a contest worthy of the comprehensive reputations of the two great players engaged. The attendance was large and highly appreciative. Prominent among the notabilities were Michael Phelan, Cyrille Dion, Neil Bryant, H. W. Collender, John J. Wiseman, Capt. Boyle, and Mr. C. Ransome, of this City; Ralph Benjamin, of Portchester; Gershom B. Hubbell, and M. H. Hewins, of Hartford, and Herman P. Butler and Edward J. Plunkett, of Philadelphia. It was not until 8½ that play began, the thirty-six minutes' delay being caused by differences between the players and their representatives as to umpires, which officials, it had been understood, were agreed upon some days ago, though a change was made at the eleventh hour. Capt. Jas. E. Boyle having been nominated as Dion's umpire, and Dudley Kavanagh as Rudolphe's, with Tim Flynn as referee, the players at last strung for the lead, Dion winning, and so placing his ball that Rudolphe failed to score. Dion began auspiciously, making a pretty run of 90, which he was forced to terminate by a play for safety. At his next essay he went to pocket off a count. It was not until the fourth inning that Rudolphe counted. Starting into a neat "bank" from the lower cushion, he scored up to 31. This he followed in the next inning with 120, on top of which, in the inning following, he piled 120 more. This made the relative positions—Rudolphe, 274; Dion, 139. In the eighth inning a very injudicious attempt on Rudolphe's part to make a masse resulted in a signal failure, and Dion was consequently afforded an opportunity to make what proved a neat run of 144. This was brought to a close by a shot which the referee, upon appeal, decided no count. The balls were thus left favorably for Rudolphe, who with careful play more than offset Dion's last accumulation by a run of 192. The game was now—Rudolphe, 508; Dion, 283. Two innings later Dion improved his position by a run of 180. When it is said that up to this point the average was fifty, those who were denied an opportunity to witness the play will at once conclude that it must have been surpassingly brilliant. Rudolphe, although his execution was masterly, had been extremely favored by the balls thus far. Dion, on the other hand, was struggling on in ill-luck. Frequently, while Dion was playing, had his opponent's ball run to pocket—a mishap from which Rudolphe fortunately escaped. Ill-luck still pursuing him, Dion at last became palpably exhausted, and in the fourteenth inning petulantly and hurriedly played a shot that should have cost him dear. Rudolphe considerately let him off for 45, however. Two innings thereafter the latter put up 138. Although but sixteen innings had transpired, this was his sixth run of triple figures—a feat unparalleled in the annals of public match playing. The marker's call here was—Dion, 582; Rudolphe, 1,031. At this stage there were several delays, as each player's turn came to go to the table, and the spectators, weary of their three hours' wait, became pardonably demonstrative. When the twenty-fourth inning had been reached, Dion was 839 to Rudolphe's 1,060; at the thirty-second, in which Dion, still so unfortunate as to command the unreserved sympathies of the entire audience, went to pocket off a superb "bank" from lower cushion, the game stood 1,221 to 887, in favor of Rudolphe. The latter, aware that he had his antagonist at a decided disadvantage, seemed now to play with all his former accuracy, and with redoubled confidence, though less luck. All the play seemed to have been knocked out of Dion by his reverses, and people left the hall satiated that he was already beaten. Both played badly for the next fifteen innings; and, indeed, so much did Rudolphe fall off, that had Dion been at all up to his usual mark, he could have won the game with a handsome margin. But never was he seen to play so badly as in the last half of last night's match, although he may justly claim that he encountered mishaps enough to unnerve the stoutest heart. Rudolphe won eventually by 306, never having made a single grave mistake.

Joseph Dion has rechallenged the winner, under the rules. Unless some one else should challenge inside of the next ten days, Dion will have an opportunity to pick his flint and try again at Rudolphe. We append the score:

RUDOLPHE—0, 0, 3, 31, 120, 120, 3, 39, 192, 21, 72, 130, 117, 0, 45, 138, 0, 24, 0, 0, 1, 1, 0, 3, 91, 18, 1, 0, 3, 12, 12, 24, 6, 82, 15, 9, 6, 6, 18, 6, 9, 3, 3, 15, 3, 18, 3, 3, 0, 3, 49, 12, 42. Total—1,500.

DION.—90, 4, 3, 3, 39, 0, 6, 144, 39, 180, 0, 0, 3, 3, 15, 9, 141, 45, 9, 6, 3, 1, 36, 6, 9, 3, 3, 6, 24, 3, 0, 0, 0, 6, 15, 21, 4, 97, 9, 3, 15, 3, 21, 9, 3, 63, 9, 3, 21, 1, 9, 1. Total—1,194.

Best runs—Rudolphe, 192; Dion, 180. Averages—Rudolphe, 28 16-53; Dion, 22 46-52. Pockets off count—Rudolphe, 3; Dion, 4. Scratches—Rudolphe, 5; Dion, 0. Time—6 hours 50 minutes.

The Strike on the Belt Railroad Ended—The Drivers Victorious.

The strike of the car-drivers on the eastern division of the Belt Railroad has at last come to an end, and the drivers are the victors in their contest with the Company. The drivers gave out, as their ultimatum, that they were willing to work fifteen hours per day, provided they were allowed half an hour for dinner. This decision was made known to the directors of the road, who endeavored to get the men to compromise the dispute by making a day's work to depend on a certain number of trips. The men, however, were unyielding, and refused to enter into any compromise that would compel them to work more than fourteen and a half hours per day—half an hour allowed them for dinner, making fifteen. Mr. Terry, the Superintendent of the road, announced this decision to the directors, backed by his assurance that the drivers would accede to no less favorable terms. After taking the matter into further consideration the directors at last decided to allow the men to resume work in accordance with these terms, and this decision was approved by Mr. Tucker, President of the Company, provided that whenever there might be, on special occasions, a demand for extra service from the drivers, they would comply with it. This was, after some discussion, agreed to by the men, and they were thereupon told to resume work this morning. The strike is thus ended, much to the satisfaction of the patrons of the Belt Road, who have been greatly inconvenienced for some days past by the interruption of travel over this route.

Almost a Murder.

James Warren, a laborer, was arraigned in the Yorkville Police Court, yesterday afternoon, on a charge of felonious assault upon James Powers. Warren, while crazy with drink, seized an ax, and struck Powers, with whom he had some slight dispute, on the head, splitting his skull open. The wounded man was brought to Bellevue Hospital, where he lies in intense agony, and in a very precarious condition. Warren was committed to await the result of the injuries.

GENERAL TELEGRAMS.

ROME AND ITALY.

The Popular Vote—Scenes at the Polling-Places—Damage by the Italian Assault—Progress of the Revolution—Jesuits Leaving Rome.

Special Dispatch to the New-York Times.

LONDON, Oct. 7.—The Italian correspondent of the NEW-YORK TIMES, "Angelico," writing from Rome Oct. 3, describes the proceedings attendant upon the plebiscite, and says that he visited most of the polling-places during the day. He can give the testimony of an eye-witness that a better and fairer plan than that adopted by the Municipal Council could not be desired. Every class of the population voted except the priests and those associated with them. At one of the polling-places the object of particular curiosity and applause was a monk in his Capuchin habit, decorated with the national colors, going with the rest to deposit his vote for liberty. He was the sole representative of his class, wearing the livery of religion and the Church. Our correspondent adds: "I have seen the carnival in its best days, but I never saw in Rome a scene of so wild hilarity and spontaneous joy."

EFFECT OF THE ASSAULT.

All the material damage done by the Italian assault was that done to the walls at the Porta Pia, the Scalava Gate and the windows of the Lateran palace. The Basilican buildings, covering the Scola Sancta, have received no injury. The large palace of the Bonaparte Villa was burned by the flying missiles entering the roof.

The following by-laws, which were adopted by the Grand Lodge in 1868, were repealed at this session by a vote of 880 to 450, after a sharp and exciting but good-natured debate:

SECTION 31. All subordinate Lodges under this jurisdiction are instructed to admit no negro or mulatto as a visitor or otherwise, under any circumstances whatever.

SEC. 32. If any Lodge in this jurisdiction violates this expressed will of this Grand Lodge, it shall be the duty of the Most Worshipful Grand Master of the State to at once arrest its charter.

AUSTRALIA.

Political Affairs—The Queensland Elections—The California Steam-ship Subsidy Denied by Victoria.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 7.—Advices from Sydney, Australia, up to the 1st of September, state that the City of Melbourne, with the Californian mails for June, broke down, and arrived a week late. European war news up to the 6th of July was received. The markets were very unsettled, and the wool market was entirely prostrated. The Intercolonial Exhibition at Sydney, opened on the 30th of July, and was an immense success, the admission for two days aggregating nearly $15,000. The Parliament had been opened, and the Ministerial position was precarious. Mr. Robertson had been elected Minister of Lands. There had been great floods in the interior of the country, causing a delay in the wool-clipping. The Governor of Victoria was visiting the Sydney Exhibition. Several new gold fields had been discovered, but none of them uncommonly rich. The construction of the Trans-Australian telegraph had commenced at both ends, and other sections will commence immediately.

In Queensland the general election will leave the strength of the different parties the same as before.

The Tasmanian Government will accept the offer of an English company to construct railways if five per cent. interest will be guaranteed within thirty-five years. The prospects of the wheat crop is poor except in South Australia. Eastern State merchandise is in great demand, except that kerosene has fallen 10 cents. There had been few shipping arrivals for the previous month. The Archer, from New-York, arrived at Dunedin, badly damaged, and narrowly escaped foundering; J. S. Stone, from New-York, is at Sydney. The Government of Victoria refused to subsidize the steam-ship route to California, or to allow letters for England to be sent that way. The last of the English soldiery left Australia on the 23d of August; the colonies intend to establish a militia force. One million pounds of wool were exported last year from Sydney. Exchange on London one per cent. premium.

Pursuit of an Organized Band of Negro Robbers and Murderers—An Encounter with the Outlaws.

RICHMOND, Oct. 7.—Reports from North Carolina received here state that in Robeson County the people are all under arms to exterminate a band of negro outlaws and murderers, who have committed the most flagrant outrages during the past twelve months in that County. On Monday last this gang made a raid from their den in Long Swamp and robbed the houses of Augustus Leach and Mrs. McKay, locking the inmates up in outhouses, while their residences were being pillaged. A party organized to capture the robbers was ambuscaded by them and fired upon, two being seriously wounded and one killed. The pursuing party returned the fire of the robbers, but with what effect is not known. The gang is said to number about fifteen, under the leadership of a notorious ruffian named Henry Berry, of Lowry. At last accounts the Sheriff had organised a large posse to pursue the villains, and a request for arms and ammunitions had been sent to Wilmington. Several pools of blood were found near the place where the ambuscade took place, but the man supposed to be killed of the gang has not been discovered.

ENGLAND.

The Cause of the Fallen Emperor—The Empress Eugenie—No Tidings from Paris—Military England—The Victors' Terms—Prussian Means of Warfare—Military Preparations of Russia.

From Our Own Correspondent.

LONDON, Thursday, Sept. 22, 1870.

The Times has generously taken up the cause of the fallen Emperor. It declares that whoever has grown rich by the Empire, he has not. Twenty years ago he went to France a poor man, and now he leaves it almost as poor as he went. Not a man of business, like LOUIS PHILIPPE, with no talent for details, he has expended all he received in keeping up a splendid court, and in magnificent hospitalities to foreign princes. He has not invested a penny in stocks or railways, and his only property is a little cottage which belonged to his mother. The Empress has an inherited property in Spain, and the Prince Imperial a house left to him by an Englishman, I believe, in Trieste. It was said that the late Lord BEAUFORT also left a considerable legacy to the Prince Imperial, but I have seen no confirmation of that rumor.

THE EMPRESS EUGENIE.

The most eloquent and enthusiastic eulogy I have seen on the Empress EUGENIE was, naturally, in an Irish journal. The Northern Star & Ulster Observer says of her:

"To the moral heroism with which true and noble women are sometimes gifted, was added, in her disposition, the kindliness that is even superior to courage in the eyes of God and of all true men and women. To the callous and the cruel it may seem weakness, but to the high-minded and the noble, the clemency of EUGENIE, Empress of the French, is the brightest gem in the thick-starred coronal of her virtues. When her soldier-servant, PALIKAO, would have deluged beautiful Paris with Republican blood on her behalf, she firmly forbade him. 'Not a drop of blood on my account,' said the daughter of the Spaniard and the Celt. The heart that bled for the cholera-stricken felt pity more than anger for the blinded Frenchmen who denounced a ruler only because he was not successful. True and loyal to her people, she has nothing wherewith to reproach herself; she has done her duty to and by them. France, if it condemns the Imperial régime, has at least the gallantry and the justice not to include her in its reproaches. Ever brave, ever noble, ever loyal, EUGENIE, if no longer an Empress in name or in state, will be one in reality so long as life is vouchsafed her; for she will never cease to reign over the hearts of men by the force of those virtues which, if we do not all practice, we all revere."

NO TIDINGS FROM PARIS.

It was very sad to open the papers, yesterday, and find no letters from Paris. The last route was cut by the enemy. Dispatches will, no doubt, be sent out from time to time, but the regular daily mail is suspended. The gay and beautiful city is a fortress, defended now by more than four hundred thousand soldiers. I make no pretension to military science, but I have seen fortresses, and I do not believe that Paris can be taken; and I do not believe that France will allow it to be starved into submission. As I write we have no news of the fall of Strasbourg. No serious attack has yet been made on Metz. Even the fourth rate fortress of Toul still blocks the road against the German siege artillery. Paris has food and drink for three months. It can manufacture arms and ammunition, out of its own population it can create an army larger than any that can be gathered against it. It remains only to be seen whether France has a genius capable of commanding such forces and organizing victory. If France has no leaders she is lost, and must submit to be governed by her conqueror. It is the fate of demoralized nations.

MILITARY ENGLAND.

The Germans have no doubt that they are destined to govern Europe; and when they have swallowed France, here is England quite ready for them. English journalists are already showing how easily they could land at several points on the coast, concentrate on London, and in two or three weeks capture the whole island. The Government, it is true, is making experimental guns, which take six months to build, but it will be several years before they can decide on the best pattern. The actual artillery is admitted to be almost useless. There are exactly 180 field guns in the United Kingdom. The most powerful ship in the navy lies keel up at the bottom of the ocean, an iron coffin for five hundred men. The blame rests with her projector, Capt. COLE, still more with the constructor of Messrs. LAIRD, her builders; most of all, perhaps, with the Government engineers, who accepted her—whose business it was to examine his plans and approve or condemn. With them rested the final responsibility of fitting out, manning, and sending to sea a ship that has upset in a squall and gone to the bottom, which ought to be for every seagoing vessel a thing impossible. A genuine "alarmist" writes in the Standard:

"We have no friends on the Continent: all are estranged. Our relations with America only want opportunity to declare their flimsiness. Ireland is still rebellious, and openly sympathetic with possible foreign enemies, despite our recent flabby concessions. Our naval power, though great, is not proportionately what it was, and a future war will never give us time to ruin our enemies' navies one by one as formerly. The condition and amount of our land forces are simply ridiculous. * * * Edinburgh or the Humber are not out of reach of the Continent in these days, nor would a march to Glasgow from the first, or to Liverpool from the second, be an impossibility, while either of these operations would cut England in two. Ireland would certainly be a battle-field in which the invaders would be welcomed by the inhabitants. Fifty thousand men for each of these objects would give us plenty to do. We should have to maintain one army in Ireland and another in the midland counties, being all the time principally threatened from the south. Disasters in Ireland would lead to attempts upon Liverpool and Bristol, both towns of great importance, with spacious unprotected harbors. Bristol would be valuable as a point d'appui for an advance upon London, which would turn the whole southern system of defense almost hopelessly. Liverpool, assailable from the Dee as well as the Mersey, would be a prize indeed, and its insecurity is so acutely felt that almost the only honest effort at preparation during the present crisis has come from thence. The presence of a large army, with more or less fighting in the midland counties, would waste the heart of the country and drive fugitives in myriads upon London and the south and east. Then would come the crowning stroke of an attack on the Thames, and, perhaps, an uninterrupted march from the Essex coast. The Lord Mayor, of truly Roman type, would hospitably entertain the famous four Uhlans at the Mansion House, while the country's ransom was being counted out over the way."

The Globe had the following paragraph at the head of its editorial columns a few days ago:

"We are sure the public will learn with the greatest satisfaction that no pains are being spared by the Government to put the fortifications of London in a state of the most complete defense at the earliest possible date. Not only is a very large force at present employed within the boundaries of the Tower in pointing, painting, whitewashing, &c., but a very large sum, it is said, is being disbursed for actually gilding the vanes on the great Tower itself. When these works are completed, it is confidently asserted that the metropolis will be well-nigh impregnable, and that England need fear no foe."

ANTI-ENGLISH SENTIMENT.

One of the last letters received from Paris says:

"The idea of the capital being saved by a sudden peace has long been abandoned, and that being so, peace has no longer any attractions. On the contrary, France is now eager to fight to the end, and in spite of all, confident of the result. The feeling is strong against England, and is becoming stronger every day."

The French suspect a plot to re-establish the ORLEANS; they remember the long alliance with England, and are wounded deeply and filled with resentment, but they accept the struggle as their fathers did in '92, and are determined to show that they have not degenerated, which having done, they say "Nous compterons avec l'Angleterre." And the Germans, with the same feeling of resentment at English neutrality, make the same ominous threats respecting a not distant future.

THE VICTORS' TERMS.

While the Times and Daily News, and probably a majority of Englishmen, are vigorously defending the right of Germany to annex Alsace and Lorraine, or whatever portion of France they may imagine necessary to German unity, without reference to the wishes of the inhabitants who are to be transferred like Feudal villains, or Russian serfs, or negro slaves, the Pall Mall Gazette quotes the great authorities on international law against the right of such appropriation. GROTIUS says that in certain cases sovereignty may be alienated.

"But if any part of the people be transferred, as they have a right to assent, so have they likewise a right to oppose such alienation." * * *

"According to PUFFENDORF, the sovereign who attempts to transfer his kingdom to another by his sole authority, does an act in itself null and void, and not binding on his subjects. To make such a conveyance valid, the consent of the people is required as well as of the Prince. For as a King cannot have his dominions taken from him against his will, so neither can another sovereign be imposed upon the people against their will; but should a King be compelled by superior force to make peace on condition of giving up a particular province which resists the transference, then in PUFFENDORF'S opinion he ought to withdraw his troops from it, and not obstruct the conqueror in taking possession. But he can by no manner of means compel it to surrender itself to a foreign yoke. Nor does there exist any obligation to restrain its inhabitants from relying upon their own resources, resisting the Power that desires to reduce them, and forming a new and separate State. VATTEL rejects altogether the idea that there can be such a thing as property, strictly so called, in a people or empire, and that 'human beings can be treated like flocks of sheep, who must await in silence the decision that sends them to the butcher, or restores them to the shepherd;' and maintains that the consent of the people, tacit or expressed—their will, declared or delegated—must be interposed to make any alienation of the sovereignty over them valid. 'There can be no alienation,' he says, 'strictly speaking, of sovereign power; all real sovereignty is in its nature inalienable.'"

But M. BISMARCK knows better, I presume, than to give much heed to these antiquated authorities. In two hundred years, I am told, Alsace will become as German as it now is French. BISMARCK has only to take and hold it for a couple of centuries, and it will be all right.

PRUSSIAN MEANS OF WARFARE.

The means which have made the Prussians successful in the open field do not apply to fortresses, in attacking which they have had few successes. Gen. DE WIMPFFEN, who succeeded Marshal MCMAHON at Sedan, attributes all Prussian victories to the superiority of their artillery even more than to the superiority of numbers. He says:

"Our hollow projectiles burst at between 2,000 and 2,400 metres, while those of the enemy reached 1,000 further. Consequently, their artillerymen, calm and skillful, rectified their fire as if they were in a polygon, and easily succeeded in destroying our material. I saw in the wood of La Garenne three pieces placed there by the officer in command, which he was obliged to withdraw, because their inefficiency was obvious, and because it was equally clear that they would be dismounted in three or four shots by the Prussian guns, placed beyond the range of the French fire. The Prussians being aware of the superiority of their artillery over the French, have filled their armies with formidable field batteries. The fact is to be remarked that they never engage their infantry before having crushed their adversaries under a storm of projectiles. Their gunners do not, like most of the French, hurry and aim carelessly; they never amuse themselves by firing at an uncertain point; but they shoot with a well-defined and determined purpose. The German Army is better disciplined than the French, and more obedient. It manœuvres with more order and unison, and rarely deviates from the line traced out for it. In marching it takes precautions not to be surprised, and so easily take advantage of an adversary so negligent as the French are in that respect. Their troops habitually skirt the roads in small parties, close together, leaving the highway itself for the artillery and baggage-wagons, in an order analogous to that of a battalion in battle, the companies of which at the same level would be in column. This method may be more fatiguing on plowed lands, but the march is effected all at once, and the formation in line is more rapid. In spite of all this, "the General believed that France might still get the better of the Prussian armies by not delivering any great battles, garnishing the ramparts of Paris with heavy marine and siege pieces, and placing sharp-shooters a little behind the detached forts in field-works, seeking by all means to keep the bombardment at a distance from the capital, so that the inhabitants might gradually become habituated to that terrible necessity. Also, some corps of troops should be scattered on the flanks of the enemy, and coming to the aid of the guerrillas, not able to deliver great combats, but to worry and crush small bodies, to pass between the enemy's lines, to destroy the railways, blow up bridges at all points where the adversary is to be found, carrying off the horses and vehicles behind the Prussian columns; finally, and in one word, abandoning the system of a great war for that of a little one, carried on incessantly and without mercy."

MILITARY PREPARATIONS OF RUSSIA.

The military preparations of Russia are beginning to cause uneasy sensations. The organization of an ambulance service with a corps of 1,000 Surgeons certainly looks like business.

ITALY.

The Italians on Papal Territory—The Civil Administration—The Situation—Tidings from Rome—The Question of Race—American Visitors.

From Our Own Correspondent.

FLORENCE, Saturday, Sept. 17, 1870.

Now that Civita Vecchia is got possession of, nearly every important point in the Roman territory is in the hands of the Italian troops. The number of killed and wounded which all these victories have cost, does not exceed the slaughter in many a street fight. Civita Vecchia, the strongest place with the exception of Rome, and where a prolonged resistance might have been made, was given up without a blow, as soon as Gen. BIXIO threatened to attack it by sea and land. Yesterday Gen. CADORNA was under the walls of Rome, and asked Gen. KANZLER to open the gates, which summons was refused. Here a more or less obstinate resistance may prove that the arm of flesh, which the Holy Father has done what he could to strengthen, is to be made to strike some hard blows. We have received little or nothing from the interior of Rome, for nearly a week, neither passengers nor the mails being allowed to pass. But it cannot be many days before the way will be opened, and we shall be able to go down there and see what aspect the Eternal City wears under the sun of liberty, which is to shed its light upon that antique desolation.

THE CIVIL ADMINISTRATION.

Preparations have been hastily made to regulate the Civil Administration according to Italian law and the new needs, and order will be assured under a milder military régime. The populations liberated have not been very demonstrative, nor have they let off any very great amount of enthusiasm, for they have been several times disappointed in their hopes of a permanent deliverance from their old masters. When the Pope says to the King's agent, "I am not a prophet, nor the son of a prophet, but I say that you will not enter this City, and if you do you will not remain here." it makes an impression upon the superstitious mind which it is not easy to overcome.

THE SITUATION.

There is even a wavering of faith among those who are the leaders and guides of this enterprise, the most audacious and hazardous which the Government of the Kingdom of Italy has yet undertaken. A member of Parliament, among the most distinguished for philosophic and statesman-like ability, was asked, a day or two back, if the position at Rome could be maintained after the war, under the new coalitions, whatever they may be, of Europe. "That depends," was the reply, and such is the equivocal opinion expressed by one of the most influential friends and advocates of the step which is now taken. To be driven out of Rome, after once in possession, would be the ruin of the Government of the Kingdom of Italy. This is now a united nation of five-and-twenty millions, aspiring to be rated as a first-class Power. Such a State should be ready, with a force of half a million of men, to defend its rights against every foreign menace, and to sacrifice half that number of men rather than give up so great a prize. Our faith in the future would be stronger if we saw Italy animated with more of that heroic spirit which makes a people capable of tremendous sacrifices, for only by terrible trials, successfully met, can a great nation be built up.

ROME.

We hear from Rome today that Gen. CADORNA has given a second notice to the Papal troops to surrender, so that, as at Civita Vecchia, an effusion of blood may be avoided. The population of Rome is making all the opposition possible to the determination of the leaders of the Papal forces to resist. Deputations with this purpose in view have waited upon Cardinal ANTONELLI, and we are waiting to hear with what effect; but you will know results long before this arrives. The foreigners in the Pope's service have sworn to defend the Pontiff, and they still insist that the soldiers of Italy wish only ill to the Spiritual Chief, and are ready to do harm to his person, which, of course, is not true.

THE QUESTION OF RACE.

The present war, and the failing fortunes of the French, have revived once more the question of race. The discussion need not be a long one, and a journal here, the Perseverance, has intelligence enough to see that the triumphs in the world of the Saxons or Teutons are explained by the single word, of which the ancient Latins made great, and the modern little account, Laboremus. As in modern times France has been the most energetic of the Latin peoples, so she has been the leader of the nations of that race, as Italy, Spain, Mexico, and the South American States have had places more or less inferior, according to their love of labor and aversion to a life of brigandage. As for intellectual gifts and physical organization, very little superiority can be claimed by one over the other; at least, where both races have enjoyed the same advantages of living for a thousand years under civilizing influences.

AMERICAN VISITORS.

Americans are beginning to arrive here from the north of Europe, among them some of our artists, waiting for the way to be opened to Rome. We have here the painters, FREEMAN, TERRY, COLEMAN, GOULD, and others. If the peace is kept in Italy, the number of visitors the coming Winter should be larger than usual; and upon this considerable calculations are already made.

Chicago a Port of Entry.

The Chicago Tribune, of the 4th inst., says:

"Already our merchants are feeling the benefit of being able to ship goods under bond direct to Chicago, and among the first to avail themselves of this advantage are TAYLOR & WRIGHT, tea importers, Nos. 48 and 50 South Water-street. We are informed that this firm have just bonded a large invoice of green teas, imported by them direct from Shanghai, via San Francisco and Pacific Railway, only forty-five days in transit, and, consequently, in splendid, fresh condition. This is a step in the right direction, and we trust that this first direct shipment by one of our resident firms will be followed by many others, and that we may soon find the 'cup that cheers, but not inebriates,' selling at such prices that all consumers will be thankful to our pioneer importers. This same firm are daily expecting a large invoice direct from Yokohama, Japan."

Suffolk County Agricultural Society.

The seventeenth annual Fair of the Suffolk County Agricultural Society opened at Riverhead on Wednesday morning. In the forenoon the attendance was good for the first day, but a violent shower springing up in the afternoon, thinned out materially the visitors. Yesterday the attendance was much larger. The exhibition was considered by all the finest the Society ever had, especially the show of stock. Mr. C. H. JONES, of Queens County, exhibited the best herd of Shorthorns, "Duke of Exeter" and "Prince" being the observed of all. J. SMITH TUTHILL, of Mattituck, showed a fine three-year-old Durham bull, weighing over 2,000 pounds. J. LOPER, of Shelter Island, exhibited a cow four years old, with a six-months calf weighing 612 pounds, a cross of Dutch and Durham. Dr. GREEN, of Sayville, had the best Durham herd. C. HAND, of Bridgehampton, exhibited a fine herd of short horns. A magnificent Gallaway bull, four years of age, excited much admiration, exhibited by J. H. WOODHULL, of Jamesport.

The sheep were fine, although but few were exhibited, H. NICHOLL, of Martic, having the finest South Downs. "Tommy Dodd," from a remarkable breed of cats, weighing eleven pounds, and under one year of age, was much admired by the ladies and children. Poultry was of average quality, as were hogs and swine. A number of very superior carriages were exhibited by E. TUTHILL, of Port Jefferson. The vegetables and garden products are the finest ever exhibited on Long Island, the show of sweet potatoes being remarkable. Nancymunds yellow and white, with other varieties, were exhibited by G. E. WELLS, Southold; J. H. SMITH, Peconic; J. H. [illegible], Southold, and [illegible] REEVES, Riverhead. The exhibition of common potatoes was also very fine. A sample of [illegible] was exhibited by J. F. [illegible], which yielded the enormous quantity of five and one half bushels, or 330 pounds, from one pound of seed—five small potatoes. A. S. HART, of Riverhead, showed five enormous pumpkins, raised from one seed. Some mammoth squash from Mattituck Seed Farm were very fine. The cabbages in Suffolk County have not been injured by the worm, and fine specimens were on exhibition. The show of vegetables from Oakland Farm gave great credit to the management of that farm. The principal exhibit of flowers was from the Horticultural School connected with the farm.

The ladies' department of the Fair is always worthy of note, the ladies of this Society being something more than ornamental. Hair-work, embroidery, crochet-work, wax-flowers, work-baskets, mats, quilts, afghans, besides home-made bread, cake, pies, canned fruit, (the finest ever canned,) &c.

We noticed a quantity of gilt jewelry for sale in the main building of the Society, which seems in bad taste, at the least.

Some boots, manufactured by E. MILLER, from leather of his own tanning, which are claimed to be of superior wear, and are worthy of note.

Miss ELIZA BURGESS, of East New-York, exhibited a fine collection of dahlias, and N. HALLECK, of Flushing, a fine assortment of cut flowers.

THE TAYLOR WILL CASE.

First Hearing Before the Surrogate—The Grounds of the Contest—Testimony of the Subscribing Witnesses to the Will—Other Proceedings.

The first hearing in the matter of the contested will of JAMES B. TAYLOR, deceased, took place yesterday, before Hon. R. C. HUTCHINGS, Surrogate. The proceedings were of an interesting character, and all the parties to the will were in attendance, accompanied by their respective counsel. Quite a large number of spectators were also present. The Court opened at 11 A.M., and the session was continued until after 3 o'clock. The only persons examined were the two subscribing witnesses to the will who, after giving their direct testimony, were examined at great length by the contestant's counsel, HENRY L. CLINTON, Esq. The will of the late Mr. TAYLOR was published exclusively in the TIMES of Sunday last, together with the names of the lawyers retained in the case. The following is the allegation of the contestant, Mrs. HOWLAND, the grand-daughter of the deceased, and in it will be found the grounds of objection, as claimed, to the probate of the will:

To Robert C. Hutchings, Esq., Surrogate of the County of New-York:

The objections of KATE B. HOWLAND, the only next of kin of JAMES B. TAYLOR, deceased, by DAVID R. JAQUES, her special guardian, against the validity of the paper writing propounded for probate to the Surrogate of the County of New-York, as the last will and testament of JAMES B. TAYLOR, deceased.

First—She alleges that said paper writing is not the last will and testament of said JAMES B. TAYLOR, deceased.

Second—She alleges that the said JAMES B. TAYLOR did not subscribe or sign said paper writing at the end thereof, or at all.

Third—She alleges that the said JAMES B. TAYLOR did not subscribe or sign said paper writing at the end thereof in presence of each or either of the attesting witnesses thereto.

Fourth—She alleges that said JAMES B. TAYLOR did not acknowledge the subscription of said paper writing to each or either of the attesting witnesses thereto.

Fifth—She alleges that said JAMES B. TAYLOR did not at the time of subscribing said paper writing, if he did so subscribe the same, or at the time of acknowledging the subscription thereof to have been made by him to the attesting witnesses thereto, if he did so acknowledge the same, declare said paper writing to be the last will and testament of him, said JAMES B. TAYLOR.

Sixth—She alleges that the attesting witnesses to said paper writing did not nor did either of them, sign his name as a witness at the end of said paper writing, or alleged will, at the request of the said JAMES B. TAYLOR.

Seventh—She alleges that said JAMES B. TAYLOR, deceased, was not at the time the said paper writing purports to have been executed, of sound mind or memory, or in any respect capable of making a will.

Eighth—She alleges that the said paper writing, purporting to be such last will, if executed by said JAMES B. TAYLOR, was obtained, and the execution thereof by said JAMES B. TAYLOR procured by fraud and circumvention, and under influence practiced against and upon said JAMES B. TAYLOR by LAURA S. TAYLOR and ALBERT DAY, or some, or one of them, or some other person or persons unknown to this contestant.

Ninth—She alleges that said paper writing, if executed by said JAMES B. TAYLOR, was not freely and voluntarily executed or made as his last will and testament by said JAMES B. TAYLOR, deceased, but that the subscription thereto, and publication thereof, by him, said JAMES B. TAYLOR, if the same was subscribed and published by him, was procured by fraud and coercion exercised upon him, the said JAMES B. TAYLOR, deceased, by the said LAURA S. TAYLOR and ALBERT DAY, or some one of them, or some other person or persons to this contestant unknown.

Dated NEW-YORK, Oct. 7, 1870.

H. L. CLINTON, AARON J. VANDERPOEL, of counsel.

WM. BROUGHTON,

Proctor for D. R. JAQUES, Special Guardian of KATE B. HOWLAND.

The first witness called on the part of the proponents of the will was Mr. EDWARD WITHERELL, of No. 290 Clinton-street, who testified that he knew the late Mr. TAYLOR since 1831, and was an intimate personal friend; he was in the habit of calling quite frequently at his office, No. 48 Pine-street; he called there June 30, 1870; Mr. TAYLOR was in his back office, writing; looked up as he entered, and addressing him familiarly, requested him to come in; he subsequently said, "I've been making my will, and want you to sign it." [The will was here shown, and witness recognized his signature.] Mr. WITHERELL then stated that after Mr. TAYLOR had affixed his signature to the instrument, he and the other witness, Mr. JACKSON, who was called in from another room, also signed the paper; as to its contents he was in ignorance, and at the time of the transaction he was requested by the deceased to say nothing about it. The cross-examination developed no new facts, although exceedingly protracted. The statements relative to signing the will were reiterated, and the particulars of several interviews with Mrs. TAYLOR, widow of deceased, and with Mr. JACKSON, his co-subscribing witness, detailed at length. These interviews were after the funeral. The handwriting of the will the witness was not familiar with. The reason given for not mentioning the fact that he had signed any will while the search for the one in question was in progress, was that Mr. TAYLOR had requested him not to mention it, and he and JACKSON agreed after the funeral to say nothing about the fact, unless a will was found. The witness further stated that he knew nothing of any other will but the one produced in Court.

Mr. JAMES JACKSON, corner of Sixty third-street and First-avenue, the other subscribing witness to the testament, was next examined. He testified that since December, 1869, he and deceased had been very intimate, particularly in connection with political affairs. The testimony in relation to signing the will entirely corroborated the previous witness, as did also his account of his various interviews with Mr. WITHERELL. At the conclusion of the examination of Mr. JACKSON, who was also cross-questioned at great length, the case was adjourned until Tuesday the 18th inst., when the evidence of three persons who assisted in the search for the will, and were present at its finding, will be taken.

Another Cuban Filibustering Enterprise—Seizure of the Steamer Hornet.

The side-wheel steamer Hornet, formerly the Cuba, was seized at the foot of Twelfth-street, East River, near the Novelty Iron Works, on Thursday evening, by Deputy Marshals CROWLEY and ROBINSON, on process issued by Col. BETTS, Clerk of the District Court. A libel was filed against the vessel by District-Attorney DAVIS, who represented that he had been informed that she was being fitted out to carry munitions of war, including ordnance and small arms, to Cuba, to be used by the insurgents in the revolution against Spain. The informer is believed to be a private detective named DAVIS, otherwise known as the "Spanish spy." It is alleged that the Hornet was recently furnished with new machinery, and that it was the intention of her officers to take her to sea today, on a Cuban filibustering expedition, under the pretence that she was going on a trial trip. She was to be joined in the vicinity of Sandy Hook by two schooners, from which she was to receive her cargo. It is also said that the vessel is owned by a wealthy Cuban resident, belonging to the Junta in this City. This statement is denied by Mr. BROWN, the agent of the vessel, who says he will show that the Hornet was not designated to be used in violation of the Neutrality laws, before Judge BLATCHFORD, at the District Court, on the 25th inst., the time when the process is made returnable.

About fifteen Cubans were found on the Hornet on Thursday night. The Hornet was seized at Wilmington, N. C., several months ago, on a similar charge.

Woman Suffrage Meeting.

The elegant rooms at No. 31 Union-square, occupied by the Woman Suffrage Association, were, yesterday, once more enlivened by a collection of ladies, assembled to report progress on the woman suffrage movement, and discuss new plans for the coming campaign.

Mrs. CHARLOTTE B. WILBOUR presided, and opened the meeting with congratulations on seeing so many of the friends of the cause reassembled. She regretted the absence of Miss ANTHONY, who had reached the City, but was engaged in making arrangements for the coming decade meeting on the 21st inst.

There was some discussion on the publicity of woman's uniting with men in voting at the polls. Mrs. WHITNEY remarked that no reflections were ever made on the sexes being together in business relations or in society, and said it was certainly no argument against the suffrage cause that men and women would be united in voting.

Mrs. L. D. BLAKE (Vice-President) moved that a committee be appointed to wait on the Senators and Representatives of New-York, and get their views on the question of woman suffrage. Mrs. BLAKE, Mrs. SOMERBY, Mrs. WILBOUR and Mrs. WHITNEY were elected as the Committee for that purpose.

Much pleasure was expressed by the ladies at meeting after the Summer vacation, and an earnest desire was evinced to accomplish a great deal during the Winter campaign.

POLICE AFFAIRS.

Trials and Removals—Resignation of Commissioner Brennan.

Commissioner BOSWORTH yesterday investigated twenty complaints against policemen, nearly all of which were preferred by the roundsmen. The principal case of the day was a charge of improper conduct, made by JOHN MCLAUGHLIN, a citizen, against Patrolman O'GRADY, of the Eleventh Precinct, in which he alleged that O'GRADY had knocked him down in Eleventh-street, near Avenue D, about 1 o'clock in the morning. O'GRADY proved to be one of those shrewd persons known as "station-house lawyers," and by his cross-examination of the complainant, his examination of his own witnesses and his statement of the case consumed a great deal of time but created great amusement. The officer's own story was that he was running down Eleventh-street in answer to an alarm rap. MCLAUGHLIN and another man, who were sitting on a stoop, hallooed at him as he passed; when he was coming back the two men were still in the street talking loudly, whereupon he went up to them and advised them to go home, or at any rate to get off his post. He had some words with them, and gave MCLAUGHLIN a slight push; afterward, when he was a dozen feet away, MCLAUGHLIN stumbled and fell, whereupon he accused O'GRADY of knocking him down. The comment of Judge BOSWORTH upon the case was, "We will have to promote that patrolman."

At a meeting of the Board held in the afternoon, Major W. H. CORSA, a prominent and active Republican of the Ninth Ward, and one of the most competent of the employes of the Department, was removed from his position as a telegraph operator. No reason is assigned for the act, but it is asserted on behalf of Major CORSA that the cause is to be found in his unflinching opposition to the control of the organization of the Republican Party by Tammany office-holders, who claim to be Republicans. The Board also made the following transfers of Sergeants in the precincts named: J. M. Robbins, Eighth to Tenth; J. A. Westervelt, Tenth to Eighth; W. H. Delamater, Seventeenth to Twenty-third; John F. Buckley, Twenty-third to Seventeenth; William E. Brown, Eighteenth to Third; Joseph Nicholson, Third to Eighteenth.

Commissioner BRENNAN announced that he had forwarded his resignation as a Commissioner to Mayor HALL, and that after 3 o'clock he would consider himself as no longer a member of the Board. Without any further formality his connection with the Police Department was severed.

The American Board of Commissioners of Foreign Missions—Closing Exercises of the Annual Meeting.

The closing session of the sixty-first annual meeting of the American Board of Commissioners of Foreign Missions was held yesterday morning in the Academy of Music, Brooklyn. The audience assembled was the largest that had been gathered together during the conference. Dr. HOPKINS occupied the chair, and the meeting was opened with prayer offered by Rev. LEWIS GRANT, missionary from Africa. Rev. Dr. R. SMITH, Chairman of the Committee on China, read an able report on the progress of religion in that country, stating, among other things, that the opposition experienced by the missionaries springs not from the ignorant, but the educated classes. The missionaries, however, hope for the speedy removal of the interdict now existing against the Christian religion.

Rev. ALBERT BUSHNELL, from the Gaboon Mission, gave an interesting account of affairs in that part of the world, after which the usual vote of thanks to the officers of the meeting, and to the public generally, was passed.

Secretary WOOD then stated that the following were the names of the missionaries about to return to their fields of labor; Mr. and Mrs. COAN, to the Sandwich Islands; Mr. and Mrs. SNOW, to the ——; Mr. and Mrs. STURGES, and Mr. and Mrs. DOANE, to far off Micronesia; Mr. and Mrs. CLARK, to European Turkey; Mr. and Mrs. ALLEN, to Eastern Turkey; Mr. and Mrs. FAIRBANK, to Mahratta, Western India; Mr. and Mrs. BURNELL, to Madura, Southern India; Mrs. SAUNDERS, to Ceylon.

The names of the following new laborers were also announced: Mr. and Mrs. WINDSOR were going to Mahratta; Mr. and Mrs. O. H. GULICK, natives of Hawaii, and children of missionary parentage, by appointment, go to Japan. Then there were Miss MALTBY, who goes to Eastern Turkey; Miss RAPELYEA, to Constantinople; Miss WOOD, to Central Turkey. All of whom will sail on Wednesday next.

In the absence of Dr. STORRS, Dr. BUDINGTON delivered the closing address, which was entirely devoted to a discussion of missionary prospects, and the duty of all Christians in the matter of spreading the Gospel.

The benediction was pronounced by Dr. ANDERSON, after which the Board adjourned finally.

American Bible Society.

The stated meeting of the Board of Managers of the American Bible Society was held at the Bible House, Astor-place, on Thursday, WILLIAM WHITLOCK, Jr., Esq., one of the Vice-Presidents, in the chair.

Seven new auxiliaries were recognized, one in each of the States of Minnesota, Missouri, Tennessee, Texas, Georgia, Alabama and Mississippi.

Communications were received from Mr. ANDREW M. MILNE, of Monte Video, South America, reporting a great increase in the demand for the Scriptures, and announcing a further postponement of the Exposition at Cordova; from HENRY C. HALL, Esq., inclosing a communication from Mr. LAWRENCE, of Barcelona, Spain, advising the Board of the safe arrival of books, and the hindrances arising from political troubles, and the existence of yellow fever, but yet presenting features of encouragement in the work; from Rev. B. G. SNOW, asking authority to print the Gospels of Matthew and Luke in the Kusaien language; from Rev. J. F. POGUE, of Honolulu, desiring a grant for printing 1,000 copies of Matthew and Mark in the Ponape language, Ascension Islands; from Col. F. W. HAULTAIN, Montreal, returning thanks for a grant of 500 French Testaments to the French Canadian Missionary Society; from Rev. JOHN BEVERIDGE as to our work in Mexico, and Dr. PREVOST, in reference to plans for further prosecuting the labors in that country; and from Hon. E. J. ROYE, President of the Liberian Republic, returning thanks for a presentation copy of the Holy Bible.

It was resolved to make arrangements for electrotyping the Armenian Scriptures at Constantinople.

Grants of books were made to Mr. J. S. PIERSON, marine agent of the New-York Bible Society, for vessels sailing to foreign ports; to the agent for New-England, Rev. W. H. GILBERT, for acolony of Chinese at North Adams, Mass.; to Rev. A. H. DE MORA, for distribution in Lisbon, Portugal; to the Valparaiso Bible Society, South America, for local demands; to Rev. J. DE PALMA for circulation among Cubans in New-York City; to the Baptist Sunday school Union, in New-York, and to others.

The whole number of volumes granted is 4,063, including five volumes in raised letter for the blind, beside which there were granted to various auxiliary societies, Bibles and Testaments, to the value of $1,285 75.

For foreign work, in funds, the following grants were made: To the Missionary Society of the Protestant Episcopal Church, $1,300; to the Missionary Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church, $600; and to the Hawaiian Evangelical Association, $211 75, for printing Matthew and Luke in the Kusaien language.

Counterfeiters on a Sea Voyage.

Some time ago the officers of the Secret Service Division in this City were informed by one of their colleagues at the South-west that two well-known Spanish counterfeiters, named EDWARD GARCIA and MANUEL ANTURNEY, had left Brownsville, Texas, and had taken passage on a schooner for this City. The vessel arrived at Quarantine, yesterday, and the two men were then taken prisoners. They were found in possession of molds, dies, acids and other implements for counterfeiting American and Mexican gold dollars, besides bogus paper money. They were committed to Ludlow-street Jail, by Commissioner BETTS, in default of $10,000 bail each, to await examination.

More Appointments in the Custom-House.

The Collector seems to have commenced the removal of attachés of the Custom-house, which have been for so long a time in contemplation, and for the past two days a considerable number of removals and appointments have been made. The majority are inspectors and many of those appointed yesterday were friends of the candidate for Lieutenant-Governor, Mr. KAUFMAN. The following were the appointments made yesterday:

Store-keepers at $4 per day—Samuel Rothschild, J. W. Brennan, Lyman Gilbert, George S. McWatters, Charles Sutton.

Night Inspectors, at $4 per day—Wm. M. Peebles, Isaac Kohn.

Night Inspectors at $3 per day—Emil Haas, Herman Heuser, Carl Steinhauser, Theo. Steltz, August Hoffman, Louis Jacobs, Daniel Hesse, Bernard Hess, William Murphy, Frank A. Heckler.

Clerk, $1,600—J. W. Cronkite; clerk, $1,200—S. C. Keys. United States Weighers, at $2,500—Charles Blarkie and E. Harrison Reid.

Fire in Brooklyn—A Man's Life Saved by a Dog.

A case curiously illustrative of the fidelity and sagacity of the dog occurred in Brooklyn, yesterday morning, under the following circumstances: Shortly after 3 o'clock, a fire occurred in the gun-shop of JAS. O'BRIEN, No. 23 Hamilton-avenue, cause unknown. In the room adjoining the shop Mr. O'BRIEN was asleep at the time, but luckily in the same room there also lay a large dog of the terrier species, which, with quicker sense than its master, had been awakened by the smoke, which was then issuing into the apartment from the shop. Appreciating the danger it at once set up a loud howling, which, however, failed to rouse the sleeping master. Seeing this, the animal sprang on the bed and seizing the breast of O'BRIEN's shirt, pulled and shook him until he was brought to his senses and made aware of his danger. But for this action there is every reason for believing that the man would have been burned to death. As it was, the building in question and the one adjoining, belonging to FREDERICK SCHOENFIELD, was damaged to the extent of about $2,000, fully covered by insurance.

TWO MURDERERS SENTENCED.

Thomas Sheridan Sent to State Prison for Three Years for Killing David Michaels—Fifteen Years' Imprisonment for John Quin, Who Killed David Reischer.

On the opening of the Court of Oyer and Terminer, yesterday, Judge INGRAHAM presiding, District-Attorney GARVIN rose and moved for sentence on THOMAS SHERIDAN, who pleaded guilty last Wednesday to manslaughter in the third degree in killing DAVID MICHAELS. SHERIDAN was placed at the bar, and his counsel read a number of affidavits, conspicuous among which was one of his employer, who testified to SHERIDAN'S excellent character while in his employ as a printer from June, 1869, to the time of the arrest. Others embraced the facts of SHERIDAN'S peaceful disposition and attention to school duties since the age of nine years.

Judge INGRAHAM said the facts developed that SHERIDAN was struck by the deceased, which justified the District-Attorney in accepting the minor plea in his case. His education, however, was rather an aggravation than excuse for the crime, and he would, therefore, sentence SHERIDAN to the State Prison for the term of three years.

JOHN QUINN, the young man who killed an inoffensive German named DAVID REISCHER, was next arraigned at the bar. His counsel, Mr. WILLIAM F. HOWE, arose, and addressing Judge INGRAHAM, said: "This young man, or boy, has, at my suggestion, interposed a plea of guilty of manslaughter in the first degree. I have several depositions in my hand which show that QUINN, who has heretofore borne the character of a peaceable, well-behaved, and sober young man, was plied with liquor, and then, not knowing, as he assures me, what he was doing, dealt the deceased a blow with an implement of husbandry—a shovel. I feel with your Honor, that crime in this City is rife, but it is safe to make a distinction between the ruffian who travels with the brass knuckles, the knife and the pistol, and the young man who inflicts a blow with no dangerous weapon and without intention. The Police can say nothing against this prisoner, who has heretofore been the only support of his aged parents. He unfortunately has not had the advantage of even a fair education, but his habits have not been dissolute, and while thanking the District-Attorney for accepting the plea in this case, I have grave doubts as to whether a jury would have found a higher verdict than manslaughter in the third degree. Feeling, however, that the minds of the jurors just now may not be so dispassionate as to warrant me to pursue that course, I am convinced that where no premeditation is shown, your Honor, while passing sentence, will bear in mind that this poor young man who, without malice, took life, is the victim of the misfortune of intemperance, which, however, I do not urge in palliation of the crime, but which accounts for his strange conduct. I trust, your Honor, in consideration of his extreme youth, and the other circumstances referred to, will extend to him all the leniency in your discretion."

After Mr. HOWE'S remarks, Judge INGRAHAM said, addressing the prisoner:

QUINN, you are another of the young men who have been placed before me for taking life. The evidence in your case disclosed the fact that you commenced an assault by throwing missiles in the apartments of a female residing in the neighborhood of the deceased. You were remonstrated with, and you began an assault which resulted in the death of an inoffensive man. May be you did not intend to kill him, but it shows cowardice on your part when you strike and kick a man when he is lying down senseless. Your fate is like many other young men. You lose your character, reputation and liberty for the sake of drink. The law gives me but little discretion. I might send you to prison for life, but the facts brought to my knowledge by your counsel warrant me in modifying that penalty. I will lessen the punishment and sentence you to the State Prison for the term of fifteen years.

A number of prisoners were arraigned charged with various offenses, and pleaded "not guilty." A number of indictments were presented by the Grand Jury, who, having announced the completion of their labors, were discharged with the thanks of the Judge. The Court then adjourned to Monday next at 10½ A. M.

Disastrous Fire in William-Street—The Losses and Insurances.

About 7 o'clock yesterday morning the boiling over of a pot of glue on the third floor of the establishment of KOCH, SONS & CO., manufacturers of stationery, set fire to the premises, and the flames were not extinguished until serious damage had been done. The inaccessibility of the fire and the inflammable character of the material enabled it to spread with great rapidity through the floor, and, reaching the hatchways, it extended to the fourth and fifth floors, where, however, the damage by fire was slight as compared with that inflicted by water. Chief-Engineer PERLEY, who was on the ground directing the operations of the firemen, succeeded, after protracted effort, in subduing the flames before they had touched the lower portion of the building, which is a large five-story brown stone, wholly occupied by the firm. Their loss is stated at $40,000 on stock, and $5,000 on the building, which they own, and have insured for $25,000 as follows: Jefferson, $5,000; Atlantic, $5,000; Empire City, $2,500; Importers' and Traders', $1,500; New Amsterdam, $2,500; Guardian, $2,500; Mercantile, $2,500; America, $2,500.

The following companies have policies for the amount stated on stock and machinery:

Company.	Stock.	Machinery.
Ætna, of Hartford	$2,850	$1,250
Pacific	1,750	250
New-York	1,750	250
Mechanics' and Traders'	1,666	333
Eagle	2,250	250
Importers' and Traders'	2,250	250
Resolute	1,750	250
Montauk	1,250	....
National	2,000	....
Empire City	1,000	....
Sterling	2,000	....

The Ætna, of Hartford, also held a policy for $500 on the fixtures.

Manslaughter Cases Before Recorder Hackett.

At the Court of General Sessions, before Recorder HACKETT, yesterday, sentence was imposed on PATRICK MATTHEWS, who was convicted of manslaughter in the fourth degree, for having killed HUGH MCCALL, in Cherry-street, with an ax.

Recorder HACKETT said he did not concur in the verdict, but believed that he caused MCCALL'S death after all danger to his wife had passed. He thought the prisoner's after life should be filled with regrets at what he had done, and his conscience should ever scourge him for the killing of a helpless inebriate. The extreme penalty attached to the verdict of the jury would be two years in State Prison; but in consideration of their recommendation to mercy, his sentence would be one year in the Penitentiary.

JAMES MCCARROLL, indicted for the murder of BARTHOLOMEW BUCKLEY, in Fourteenth-street, between Tenth and Eleventh avenues, in June last, pleaded guilty of manslaughter in the fourth degree. The plea was accepted by Mr. FELLOWS, and the prisoner was remanded for sentence to give the Court an opportunity of examining the papers.

The Anti-Gambling Case—Prescott Discharged.

Yesterday, a motion was made by JOHN D. TOWNSEND, Esq., as counsel, for the discharge of CHAS. E. PRESCOTT, who was jointly indicted with R. R. WEST (lately convicted) and HY. GALWEY, for obtaining money by false pretenses. The District-Attorney stated to the Court that as he was satisfied that Mr. PRESCOTT was simply an employe in the establishment, he could not expect a conviction if a trial was held. Thereupon PRESCOTT was discharged.

Criminals Sentenced in the Court of General Sessions.

At the Court of General Sessions, yesterday, before Recorder HACKETT, considerable interest was excited in the case of WM. JOHNSON, alias Dooley, who pleaded guilty some time ago of having broken into the grocery-store of ADAMS & SCHUYLER, at No. 43 Jay-street, and of having stolen $35 worth of tea. He was subsequently discharged on suspended sentence. It appears clemency was obtained for JOHNSON through the efforts of Mrs. ROME, of No. 70 Bank-street, to whom the prisoner pretended that he could restore to her certain wedding presents of silver-ware belonging to her, which had been stolen from the safe of her father, MARTIN Y. BUNN. At the time of his discharge he requested Mrs. ROME to accompany him to a pawn-store on Grand-street, near the East River, where, he claimed, her property could be found. On arriving in front of the store, he borrowed $7 75 from Mrs. ROME, on a pretense that he would redeem the silver-ware with the money. He then disappeared, but was arrested, yesterday, at No. 66 Hester-street, in company with a woman. He was sent to State Prison for two years and six months on the suspended sentence.

CARSON BEDFIELD pleaded guilty of an assault with an ax on MARY CROUSE, and was sent to the Penitentiary for one year.

JOHN LAPPIN, alias Wilson, pleaded guilty to a charge of burglary in the third degree. He was sent to the State Prison for five years.

WILLIAM MULLADY, who stabbed JOHN WRAY, at No. 274 Bowery, was sent to State Prison for three years.

HONORA KENNEDY was sent to State Prison for two years and six months for having taken $96 from the pocket of RHEINHARDT MEYER, of the schooner Ridgewood.

The Court then adjourned until Monday.

LAW FOR ERIE.

The Coming Election of Directors of the Erie Railway Company—Motion for a Mandamus to Compel the Company to Allow an Inspection of Their Books Denied by the Supreme Court.

In the TIMES of yesterday we published the fact that Judge BARNARD had, on the petition of a stockholder of the Erie Railway Company, named FRANKLIN H. CHURCHILL, granted an alternative mandamus to compel the Erie Company, its officers, agents, &c., to allow Mr. CHURCHILL to examine their stock list and ledger, or show cause at the Chambers of the Supreme Court on the 6th inst., why they should not be punished for not permitting an inspection pursuant to the statute. On Thursday the case was called on before Judge CARDOZO, sitting at Chambers, and the argument of the motion was then postponed until yesterday, to enable one of the counsel for the Company time and opportunity to examine the affidavit of Mr. CHURCHILL, and prepare a return to the petition. Yesterday, therefore, the matter came up again before Judge CARDOZO at Chambers. That Judge sent the counsel representing the contending parties into the Special Term room to be heard before Judge BARNARD.

Mr. WM. M. EVARTS appeared as counsel for Mr. CHURCHILL, and Messrs. D. D. and D. FIELD and THOMAS G. SHEARMAN represented the Erie Railway Company.

Judge BARNARD asked how the case came before him at Special Term. It was, he said, properly a Chamber motion.

Mr. EVARTS explained that Judge CARDOZO had sent them there; that the Calendar at Chambers was very heavy, and, besides, the case came up on an alternative mandamus, which had been granted by his Honor, Judge BARNARD. The latter finally concluded to hear the motion, although he said he thought it properly belonged in the other branch of the Court.

Mr. EVARTS then read the writ of alternative mandamus, and the proof of service of the same upon Mr. JAY GOULD, the President of the Company. He also referred to the sworn petition of Mr. CHURCHILL, from which it appeared that he is the owner of ninety shares of the preferred capital stock of the Company, and that the same stands in his name on the Company's books; that an election for three directors of the Company is to be held on Tuesday next, the 11th inst.; that he desires to inspect the books in order that he may be better able to protect his own rights, and the rights of others, at the ensuing election; that for that purpose he applied to the President, Mr. JAY GOULD, and afterward to HORATIO N. OTIS, the Secretary, upon two occasions, within business hours, at the Company's office, and that permission to inspect the books was refused. He was not able to have an interview with Mr. GOULD. The following section of the law was referred to, as being the one upon which the application for a mandamus is based:

I. R. S., chapter 18, section 1: "The book or books of any incorporated company in this State, in which the transfer of stock in any such company shall be registered, and the books containing the names of the stockholders in any such company, shall, at all reasonable times during the usual hours of transacting business, be open to the examination of every stockholder of such company, for thirty days previous to any election of directors; and if any officer having charge of such books shall, upon demand by any stockholder, as aforesaid, refuse or neglect to exhibit such books, or submit them to examination, as aforesaid, he shall, for every such offense, forfeit the sum of two hundred and fifty dollars."

Mr. FIELD read the sworn return of Mr. GOULD, from which it appeared that the books of the Company are under the control of a Board of Directors, which Board is composed of sixteen persons besides himself; that he, individually, has no control over the books, and he denies that personally he has ever refused to allow the petitioner to make an inspection of them. As to the Company, Mr. FIELD said they would put in a demurrer.

Mr. EVARTS insisted that, so far as Mr. GOULD was concerned, the only question before the Court was whether he should be punished to the extent of $250.

Mr. FIELD replied that, as to Mr. GOULD, they had answered, denying all the material allegations, and that raised a question of fact to be tried. As to the Company, they had demurred, and hence there was an issue of law to be tried.

Judge BARNARD held that the demurrer had better be tried first.

Mr. EVARTS re-read certain portions of the return of the respondents, and said they would put in a demurrer. He went on to argue that the course insisted on by counsel on the other side and in which the Court seemed to coincide was calculated to defeat the rights which the petitioner wished to secure to himself. The election is to take place next Tuesday, three days hence. How would it be possible, even if the decision of this Court should be in his favor, for him to make it available, if such a delay as is suggested must take place before a peremptory mandamus is allowed to issue to compel the Company to permit an inspection of their books? The law which he cited, he submitted to the Court, was very plain—so plain that no one need misapprehend it. There could be no question, he said, as to a mandamus being the proper remedy. Indeed, it was difficult to see what other remedy could be pursued in such a case.

Mr. FIELD replied that the true course was to put the case on the calendar of the Special Term as an issue of law, and give fourteen days' notice of argument.

Judge BARNARD said he was compelled to pass upon it on the two papers which he had before him. First, the affidavit of CHURCHILL, and, second, the return made by Mr. GOULD, the President of the Company.

Mr. EVARTS said it all amounted to this, that the Erie Company will not allow an inspection of their books to a stockholder, although the statute provides that that stockholder may inspect them any time within thirty days days prior to an election of directors. Why, said counsel, should I not have a peremptory mandamus today against the Erie Railway Company and its officers?

Judge BARNARD—I put it on the ground that the substantial facts are denied.

Mr. EVARTS—No, your Honor, not by the Erie Company.

Judge BARNARD—But by JAY GOULD, the President of the Company.

Mr. FIELD said they had not shown that a demand even to inspect the books had been made upon the Company. Let them notice the case for argument, said he, and put it on the calender, and we will meet them. I object, however, to going into the merits of the motion until we have had fourteen days notice, which we are entitled to by law.

Judge BARNARD—Yes, let them put it on the calendar.

Mr. COARTS—But the election takes place on Tuesday next. Fourteen days hence, of what use will it be to us to inspect the books with a view to our protection at that election, even if the Court should finally decide that we are entitled to inspect them? We contend that the question is one of law, and that the Court has the power to issue a peremptory mandamus. One day is enough to examine the books.

Judge BARNARD said he had no doubt about the power of the Court under certain circumstances to issue a peremptory mandamus. But in this case the petitioner has seen fit to take an alternative mandamus, and upon the return of that, an issue of law has been raised which, if the other side insist upon it, they have a right to have tried in the usual way; that is, by placing the case upon the calendar, and giving fourteen days notice to the respondents. The motion in its present form is, therefore, denied.

Another Attempt to Bail Caldwell, the Drawback Conspirator—Arrest for Subornation of Perjury.

An elderly man named CHARLES TRAPP, yesterday appeared before Assistant District-Attorney PURDY, at the Federal building, in company with Gen. JOHN H. ANTHON, who said that the former desired to become one of the sureties for his client, RICHARD B. CALDWELL, the notorious confederate of SAMUEL T. BLATCHFORD, in the great drawback conspiracy. TRAPP represented that he was the owner of 1,000 acres of land in Orange County, valued at $20,000, formerly belonging to one PATTERS. He also said that he was the owner of a house at No. 86 Hester-street, and offered to make an affidavit as bondsman before Commissioner STILLWELL. Mr. PURDY, suspecting the man on account of several fraudulent attempts made to secure CALDWELL'S release from Ludlow-street Jail, sharply questioned him, and finally caused him to confess that he was not a property-holder, and that he was instigated to swear to a falsehood by FRANCIS MULBORN. Mr. PERRY procured a warrant from Commissioner SHIELDS for the arrest of the latter for subornation of perjury, and the accused was captured in Chambers-street by Deputy Marshal BERNHARD. He was recognized as a procurer of bogus bondsmen. He intimated that he had been hired to procure bail by one of CALDWELL'S brothers. He was committed to Ludlow-street Jail in default of $10,000 bail. As he was about leaving the Commissioner's office, he made a pretense of fainting, and created considerable excitement.

The Madison-Street Counterfeiters.

Messrs. WHITLEY and APPLEGATE gave testimony before Hon. JOHN A. SHIELDS, yesterday, in the case of THEODORE NICHOLAS and ADOLPH KEEP, two Russians, who were arrested a few days ago at No. 148 Madison-street, on a charge of counterfeiting fifty-cent currency notes. It was shown that the first-named accused was caught in the act of engraving the counterfeit plates, and that his companion was busy printing spurious notes at the same time. A motion was made to discharge KEEP, on the ground that, being a boy, he was nothing more than a tool in the operations. The motion was denied, and the examination was then adjourned to give the defense an opportunity of introducing evidence.

THE BISHOP DIVORCE CASE.

New Counsel for the Plaintiff.

The Bishop divorce case came up pursuant to adjournment, before Judge JONES, at Special Term of the Superior Court, yesterday, on a motion in behalf of plaintiff, Mrs. BISHOP, to restrain further proceedings by the defendant, Mr. BISHOP, until he had paid up accrued alimony. Both parties to the action were in Court with their respective counsel, and when the Judge intimated his readiness to hear the motion, Mr. PECK arose and stated that he had been retained by the plaintiff, Mrs. BISHOP, as her counsel in the case, and as such appeared on the motion. At this point "the Count JOHANNES," the attorney of record for Mrs. BISHOP, arose and stated to the Court that it appeared to him that he was being supplanted in the case.

Mr. PECK responded that he knew of no law which prohibited Mrs. BISHOP from retaining as many counsel as she saw fit to conduct her case.

Judge JONES stated, that in his view, counsel could not appear without the consent of the attorney of record.

Mr. PECK said he had just learned since coming into Court, that some new questions had been raised by the defendant's counsel in relation to the payment of alimony, and under the circumstances he desired that the case might be permitted to stand over for two weeks, so that he (counsel) might have an opportunity to acquaint himself with the proceedings had in the case heretofore, and its present condition. Judge JONES inquired of the Count JOHANNES if he would consent to an adjournment for two weeks, to which he assented, but counsel for defendant preferred an adjournment for one week only. This was mutually assented to, and the case directed to stand over for one week. All parties conducted themselves with becoming tranquillity and decorum.

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT—BROOKLYN.

Before Judge Benedict.

George C. Roberts vs. Henry Kohler et al.—The plaintiff in this case is the patentee of an ice-chest, extensively used by butchers and restaurant-keepers all over the country. A chest, however, of similar character, and which he asserts is an infringement on his patent, is also extensively in use, and among other places in the establishment of the defendant. In view of that fact he filed a petition a few days ago to have an injunction issued prohibiting the defendant from using the said chest, and demanding $1,000 damages for the injuries claimed to have been sustained. This is looked upon by the butchers and restaurant men of both cities as a test case, and they have formed a union to sustain the defendant.

Judge BENEDICT referred the matter to United States Commissioner Jones to take evidence, before whom both parties are vigorously at work.

KINGS COUNTY SUPREME COURT.

Before Judge Tappen.

Edward Hincken et al., Executors of Peter Rice, vs. The Mutual Benefit Life Insurance Company.—This was an action to recover $10,000 on a policy issued by the defendants in 1862 on the life of Peter Rice, of Newark, N. J., who died in 1866. The defendants set up, in answer, a provisionary clause in the policy, which provided that in case the subject should die from an excessive use of intoxicating liquors, the Company would not be held responsible for the policy, and that he did die from that cause they attempted to prove; and they further alleged that due notice of Rice's death had not been furnished them. The jury found a verdict for plaintiffs for the full amount, with interest.

George G. Reynolds for plaintiffs; Sterling & Walden for defendants.

BROOKLYN CITY COURT—TRIAL TERM—PART I.

Before Judge Neilson.

Edward J. Powers vs. George G. Curnon.—This was an action to recover $5,000 damages for injuries alleged to have been inflicted by defendant on plaintiff, on the 2d of April last. The evidence, however, went to show that both parties had been rather pugnacious, and that the injuries complained of were received in a regular hand to hand encounter, brought on by the solicitation of plaintiff.

The jury rendered a verdict of $250 for plaintiff.

Oscar Fisk, Jr., for plaintiff; J. Q. Adams for defendant.

Part II.—Before Judge McCue.

William H. Williams vs. John Lynch.—The defendant in this case is a Police Justice in the Ninth Ward of Brooklyn, and the plaintiff is a livery stable keeper in the same vicinity. The cause of action, it appears, grew out of some misunderstanding that they had about a year ago concerning litigation in which the defendant was then engaged. Judgment had been issued against him, and the Sheriff being at a loss to find anything worth attaching, went to the present defendant and secured from him information that led to the capture of Lynch's horse. Enraged at that, Lynch vowed vengeance against the plaintiff and had prosecuted on several trumped-up charges, all of which, however, were in course of time dismissed. The injury done to him by these actions, however, plaintiff estimated at $5,000, and to recover that amount brought suit yesterday.

The jury found a verdict in plaintiff's favor for the full amount.

Thomas E. Pearsall, for the plaintiff; A. J. Spencer, for defendant.

FRIDAY, Oct. 7—P. M.

The sales of Gold, today, have ranged 113 @113⅜ ₱ cent. The speculation in the Gold Room is dull, so far as it relates to buying and selling, but active as between the lender and borrower of cash Gold for immediate delivery. Gold continues very scarce on the Street, notwithstanding the proffers of the Treasury to pre-pay the November Coupons and to discount the $7,022,000 of Five ₱ cent. Stock due Jan. 1, 1871. Of the latter, only about $1,500,000 has been surrendered, and of the November Coupons the amount presented is quite inconsiderable. So that, including the large $1,000,000 Gold sold on Wednesday, the amount disbursed since Monday is scarcely equal to the $2,752,000 taken in for the five days for Customs. The fortunate bidders of the Cash Gold are now getting 1½ ₱ cent., or at the rate of 18 ₱ cent. per annum, for the use of the Gold, besides the ordinary interest derived from relending the Currency advanced upon by the borrower. And this process has now been going on for three or four weeks. The uncertainty as to how long it may continue unsettles confidence in the current price of Gold, and by indirection in the market for Public Funds. Another resulting incident from the scarcity of Gold, and the high value of its use from day to day, is the cheap ruling of Foreign Bills, and the difficulty of placing large sums, even at current quotations of 108⅝@108⅞ ₱ cent. on London.

Money is in moderate demand from the Brokers at 5@6 ₱ cent. on call loan, and at 7 ₱ cent. at Bank on ordinary business paper presented by dealers for discount. But beyond this all time operations at Bank and in the Street are subject to very arbitrary rates of interest and brokerage, all the way from 7 to 15 ₱ cent. per annum.

The Stock Exchange looked very dull in all its departments this forenoon, but later in the day there was an advance on some of the Railway Shares, which gave a fair degree of spirit to the market in the Long Room after 3 o'clock. In the Public Funds the quotations were steady, on a moderate business, and disposed to firmness at the late Board on the basis of 110¾ for the 6 ₱ cents of 1867 5-20s, and 106⅝ for the 5 ₱ per cent. 10-40s. The Southern State Bonds dull, except new Tennessees, for which the demand continues at 60½@61 ₱ cent. In the Railway Mortgages, the chief transactions are in Central Pacifics at 90⅝@90¾, and Union Pacific 83⅝@83¾ ₱ cent. The old Western Railway Mortgage Bonds, 7 ₱ cent. Currency Interest, are well held against steady orders at the Exchange Board to buy small parcels for investment.

After the late Board the following quotations were made, as compared with Thursday Afternoon. The Railways left off strong; Reading 1,000 shares sold at par.

BANKING AND FINANCIAL.

HARVEY FISK. A. S. HATCH.

OFFICE OF FISK & HATCH,
BANKERS AND DEALERS IN GOVERNMENT SECURITIES, NO. 5 NASSAU-ST.,
NEW-YORK, Oct. 1, 1870.

☞ THE PRICE OF THE LAST ISSUES of Five-twenties today is 110¾—that is, a $1,000 bond will bring, in cash, $1,105.

The price of Central Pacific Bonds, today, is 90¼—that is, a $1,000 bond can be bought for $902 50.

The Central Pacific Pacific Railroad is well and economically managed, and its revenues are large, certain and constantly increasing, as is shown by the following statement of its earnings since its beginning:

	Gross.	Op. Expenses.	Net.
1865	$401,941 92	$121,669 53	$280,272 39
1866	864,917 57	200,710 61	664,206 96
1867	1,470,653 50	430,913 33	1,139,740 17
1868	2,300,767 17	843,166 54	1,457,600 63
1869	5,670,822 25	2,993,523 19	2,677,299 06

The earnings of the main line for the current year will exceed $8,000,000, and are as follows:

January	$413,104 41	June	$729,274 46
February	394,176 47	July	784,029 64
March	488,332 91	August	806,040 00

May	768,719 77

The Bonds are dealt in with the same facility as Five-twenty Bonds, and have a market at all the great money centres in the world, such as London, Frankfort, Amsterdam, and at the New-York Stock Exchange. We unhesitatingly advise our friends and customers, who may be thinking of making investments, or exchanging their Five-twenties, to take these Bonds as suitable, safe and advantageous.

We buy and sell Government Securities and Central Pacific Bonds, make collections, and allow interest on deposits. FISK & HATCH.

☞ GEORGE OPDYKE & CO' are agents for the sale of the following desirable securities, which they offer at low prices:

N. Y. and O. Midland First Mortgage Bonds, seven per cent. gold.

St. Louis and S. E. Railway First Mortgage Bonds, seven per cent. gold.

Alabama State 8s.

New-Jersey Town Bonds, seven per cent.

Some excellent Western ten per cent. securities.

$1,900,000

☞ SEVEN PER CENT. GOLD BONDS OF THE PORT ROYAL RAILROAD COMPANY. These bonds are secured by mortgage, covering the railroad and the entire property and franchises of the Company, to the Union Trust Company of New-York. They have twenty years to run; bear Seven per cent. interest, payable semi-annually, 1st May and 1st November, in New-York or London, at the option of the holder, FREE OF GOVERNMENT TAX; and both principal and interest are payable in Gold Coin. They are also convertible into the capital stock of the Company, at the option of the holder.

The road traverses the best district of South Carolina; unites the harbor of Port Royal—the best harbor south of New-York—with the City of Augusta, Ga., and connects directly with all the railroads centering at that point. It forms, therefore, the Atlantic or Seaboard link in THROUGH LINES of railroad extending already many hundred miles west of the Mississippi, which fact assures it a business second to that of no railroad in the South.

These bonds are offered, for the present, at the low price of 88 and accrued interest in currency. We are satisfied of the perfect soundness of the bonds, and consider them, at the price, the cheapest first-class security offered in this market.

N. B.—Phamplets and maps, giving further information, furnished on application.

Governments and other securities received in exchange at full market rates.

FISH—There has been a moderate trade reported in the leading kinds since our last, within the previous range.

FOREIGN LIQUORS—Have been in rather more request, but without changes of moment in values.

FLOUR AND MEAL—The offerings of the low grades of State and Western Flour have been very light, and prices have favored sellers with a fair inquiry reported, mostly for shipment. Medium and high grades have been quoted about steady, but have been without much movement. Sales have been reported, since our last, of 13,800 bbls., all told, including poor to choice Superfine State and Western at from $4 90@$5 25, chiefly at $5 10@$5 25; inferior to very good extra State at $5 35@$5 55, mainly at $5 50 for very good delivered; very good to choice do., $5 55 @$6 25; good shipping extra Western at $5 30@$5 55; poor to good shipping brands, round-hoop extra Ohio, at $5 40@$5 65, ₱ bbl. Southern Flour has been in moderate request at former figures. Sales reported since our last of 1,050 bbls., in lots, at about $4 75@$6 25 for very poor to good Ordinary, and $6 25@$9 25 for good Ordinary to choice Extra, ₱ bbl. Rye Flour has been in fairly active request at $4@$5 75 for very inferior to choice, ₱ bbl.; sales, 670 bbls. FRUIT—The demand has been comparatively light for most kinds, at generally less buoyant rates; 1,500 boxes new-crop Layer Raisins have been sold at $3 25 ₱ box; 36 bbls. Currants, part at 11½c. ₱ lb.; 150 pks. Figs on private terms; 950 cases Sardines at 19¼c.@20c., chiefly at 19½c., gold, and 22½c. currency, ₱ quarter box.

GRAIN—The Wheat market opened with an appearance of more steadiness, on a light offering of desirable parcels, but the demand was limited, as buyers were not disposed to purchase freely at the prevalent quotations, preferring to await the receipt of fresh supplies by canal and river, understood as being near at hand. Toward the close, holders became more accommodating in their views, offering their available stocks with greater freedom, which, with the further rise in ocean freights, led to a decline in values of about 2c. ₱ bushel, the market winding up weak and irregular. Red and Amber Western (Winter) Wheat has been very quiet, the demand having been on a limited scale, at prices under the views of sellers; the light dealings reported have been at from $1 25@$1 29 for Ordinary to Fair; $1 32 for very Good, in store; $1 33@$1 35 for very Good to Prime, in small lots, and $1 47 for Extra Choice New-crop Amber Indiana, ₱ bushel. In the poorer grades of Spring, business has been dull at irregular figures. White Wheat has been less sought after, and quoted somewhat easier. NEWS OF THE DAY.

THE WAR.

Our military correspondent in Paris writes on the 3d inst. that the "opposition" element is becoming extravagant in its demands, asking confiscation of the property of absentees, sequestration of Bonapartist property and the removal of memorials of the Bonapartist régime, including the column on the Place Vendome. The high price and scarcity of meat places it almost beyond the reach of the poorer class, and food riots have in consequence occurred. Charcoal and wood are also disappearing. The Prussians on the north side of the city are endeavoring to turn the water from the Canal de L'Ourg, in the River Moree, which empties into the Seine below Paris, by which means the supply of water may be cut off. The German siege guns are in position and ready to begin the bombardment. A great gun is said to be ready to be mounted in Fort D'Ivry by the French, which has a great range.

The Prefect of Epinal telegraphs that on the 5th inst. an encounter took place near Bruyères, about nine miles from Epinal, with 8,000 or 10,000 Prussians, in which the French held their own. A Tours dispatch says all telegrams received there indicate a steady advance of the Prussians toward Lyons. They are reported to be greatly harassed by the Francs-tireurs. A London dispatch says Belfort and Schlestadt are to be attacked immediately. A movement to the south from Mulhouse is reported, that city having been evacuated by the Prussians. Telegrams from the region of Orleans represent that the Prussians have been driven from Janville, Toury and the neighboring villages, the French capturing twenty prisoners, Prince ALBERT's couriers among the number. Great quantities of arms and stores are pouring into Tours from all parts of France. The Germans report from Versailles that their cavalry are scouring the country in the vicinity of Orleans. Five hundred Pontifical Zouaves have arrived at Tours, who enter the French service.

The prisoners in Belgium, fugitives from the northern battle-fields of France, who have been held at Beverloo, have shown symptoms of revolt, and the Belgian Rifles have been sent there to preserve order. Permission has been granted to Gen. BOURBAKI to re-enter Metz, and he has returned to that beleaguered city. Count BISMARCK publishes a card, dated on the 6th inst., from Versailles, in which he says he does not hold the opinion that the republican institutions of France are dangerous to Germany, and he denies that he has ever expressed such a view to any one.

GENERAL EUROPEAN NEWS.

A fearful earthquake has just occurred in Calabria, by which several villages were destroyed and many lives lost....Our correspondent in Rome telegraphs that no better or fairer plan of taking the vote in that city on the question of Italian unity could have been adopted than that of the Municipal Council. All classes, except the priests and their associates voted. He testifies also to the spontaneous rejoicing of the Romans on thus ratifying their liberation. The progress of the revolution in the city is marked by the gradual changing of the names of streets and the disappearance of the Papal arms from public buildings. The Jesuits are reported to be leaving the City of Rome....The St. Petersburg journals repeat the statement that Gen. IGNATIEFF's journey to Odessa was on personal business....A leader of Austrian working men has been sentenced, in Vienna, to five months' imprisonment for attempting to create a revolt....The survivors of the wreck of the Ondar have reached London.

GENERAL.

A committee of the Irish Republican Central Club, of New-York, have been assured, according to a Washington dispatch, that the President will, this week, issue a pardon to Gen. O'NEIL and his Fenian associates, imprisoned in this State for violation of the Neutrality laws.

The Southern Commercial Convention at Cincinnati, adjourned, yesterday, to meet in Baltimore on the third Monday in September, 1871, after voting to change the name of the Convention to the National Commercial Convention.

A number of appointments, by the Collector of Customs in this City, were, yesterday, confirmed by the Secretary of the Treasury.

A postal convention has been entered into by our Government with the Colonial Government of New-Zealand for the transmission of the mails between San Francisco and New-Zealand, by means of the Colonial mail packets. The convention takes effect Dec. 1, 1870, and establishes an international letter postage of twelve cents for each single rate, prepaid. Another postal convention has been concluded with the Provinces of Vancouver's Island and British Columbia on the same basis as that with the Dominion of Canada, and one also with the Republic of Salvador.

There was heavy frost all over New-England on Thursday night.

Rev. R. E. PATTISON, D. D., of St. Louis, has been appointed President of the Chicago Baptist Theological Seminary, and Rev. E. C. MITCHELL, D. D., at present in charge of the theological department of Shurtleff College, Alton, Ill., has been appointed to the Professorship of Hebrew and the Old Testament at the same institution.

The deaths from yellow fever in New-Orleans, on Thursday, were fifteen.

Yesterday morning was exceedingly cold throughout New-England, and the first heavy frost of the season occurred. At Dover, N. H., the thermometer indicated thirty-seven degrees.

JOHN QUINN, a youth of nineteen years, who pleaded guilty, in the Court of Oyer and Terminer, to manslaughter in the first degree, in having killed DANIEL MICHAELS by beating him on the head with a shovel, was yesterday sentenced to the State Prison for fifteen years.

To All Honest Democrats.

We wish sincerely that decent Democrats in this City would ask themselves, and as soon as they get an answer ready would let us know, in what way Federal politics are likely to gain by keeping TWEED and his confederates, FISK, GOULD & CO., in the government of this State, and his subordinate, HOFFMAN, in the Executive chair, and his subordinates, BARNARD and CARDOZO, on the Judicial Bench of this City. Why FISK wants to keep the Erie Railroad, and why HOFFMAN wants to be Governor, and why BARNARD and CARDOZO prefer judging in New-York to judging out in Cattaraugus County, and why TWEED likes to be at the head of the Department of Public Works, and live in the Fifth-avenue mansion, and drink his Sunday punch in the "gorgeous" stables, as the World says he does—we understand perfectly well. There is nothing inscrutable about the career of these gentlemen. No deepness of insight, or power of analysis, or broadness of comprehension is needed to fathom their motives. Nobody, who comes to the consideration of them, need prepare himself for his work by study or observation. Anybody who can guess why a pig wants to get into a potato-field, or a bear to tear up a cache, or a cat to creep into a cupboard, or why dogs hang round slaughter-houses, is competent to write an exhaustive essay on New-York City politics, and paint the whole Tammany Ring with the hand of a master. So we do not invite any respectable citizen to spend his precious time accounting for them; and the class we address is that large body of honest and industrious Democrats, who, while acknowledging, with shame and sorrow, the rascalities of these gentry, keep on voting for them year after year without the smallest expectation of any share in their plunder, and to whom personally the triumph of the party is of no sort of consequence. They support it as a means and not as an end. They vote for TWEED because they imagine that they will thus keep the Democratic Party in power here, and help to put it in power in Washington.

In other words, they vote the Democratic ticket in the belief that they are thereby "serving the country;" but serving the country is a very vague phrase. Will some of them let us know in detail how the country can be served through such men as TWEED, his Judges, and his Governor? The end of all party organizations is to make the machinery of government cheap and efficient; but TWEED's business—the sole business of his life—is to make it, as far this City is concerned, dear and inefficient, and it is the government of this City which most concerns us who live in it. The Union exists, as far as we are related to it, first and foremost, that we here in New-York may have protection for our lives and property and reputation; for our health, our business; that we may be able to live under the law, and have nothing to hope from any man's favor, or to fear from any man's wrath. But TWEED and his Judges are all interested, to the last degree, in preventing these expectations from being realized. If this City were governed in this way, they would all be poor and obscure men; the mansion in Fifth-avenue would be in the hands of an honest merchant or mechanic; the fountain would cease to flow; the stables would be unwainscotted, and the Sunday punch would probably be consumed in the Bellevue Hospital. To vote for TWEED and HOFFMAN, with the expectation of improving the General Government any more than the City Government, is like training foxes to be watch-dogs, or discharging thieves from custody on condition that they will become temperance lecturers or Sunday-school teachers. Party fidelity may be a very fine thing, and the Republicans very bad men, and a Radical administration objectionable—but in setting things to rights, surely there ought to be some common sense displayed. What is there that government can do for us, that the Ring does not make a business of having as badly done as possible? It corrupts the Judges,—and thus endangers property and life; it introduces frauds into the elections, and thus endangers the whole political public; it steals the public money, and thus increases the taxes. What more than this could the worst Republican Administration do? Will some deluded Democrat let us know?

You see, now, that HOFFMAN has been so far subjugated that he dare not reform the Judiciary, even to the extent to which the Constitution permits him; and the reason why he does not is, not that he has himself any special liking for judicial corruption—for we believe he made a very fair Judge when he was on the Bench—but that TWEED needs corrupt Judges, and has forbidden HOFFMAN to meddle with them. This is the only explanation of the Governor's conduct consistent with the theory of his sanity, which, we believe, has never been questioned. TWEED's power, you see, grows with his wealth. He has not only control of the Bench, of the Executive, but now of the Democratic Press. Last Winter the principal Democratic organ came out against him with extraordinary fervor, denounced his stealing of the public money, his corruption of the Judges, his election frauds, and the scandalous luxury of his living, not even sparing his "Sunday punch", in his stables. Great expectations were excited by this outburst, but you now perceive that he has the means to stop this kind of attack, and that he has completely muzzled the Democratic Press. The World is now his most devoted servant. Can you stand this any longer? Will you let it go any further? We do not ask you for adhesion to Republican opinions, or support of Republican candidates. We simply ask you as decent men, fathers of families, honest mechanics and traders, whether you are prepared to continue the government of this great City—in which we might all, high and low, rich and poor, find so much comfort and beauty—in the possession of a gang of wretched thieves, who, in any other community in the civilized world, would never see a Judge, except from the criminal bar—never enter "a mansion," except after midnight, and through the basement window in the rear.

Can France Accept the Loss of Her Provinces?

In a recent report of the interview between VON BISMARCK and M. FAVRE, it is stated that the latter urged, in reply to the Prussian demands for Alsace and Lorraine, that "French honor could not endure the diminution of any of the French territory." The Provisional Government were willing to pay an indemnity for the war expenses, to dismantle the fortresses, and possibly to give up a portion of the French fleet; but the honor of the nation could not bear the loss of their ancient provinces. On this rock, probably, the efforts for peace were wrecked, and rather than yield this point of honor France is given over to devastation and ruin. One account of this celebrated interview reports that VON BISMARCK replied that the honor of the French nation was no more sensitive than that of any other nation, and they had often submitted to losses of territory rather than carry on a disastrous war. Whether the Prussian Premier made the retort or not, it contains a substantial historical truth which ought to be considered now by the French leaders.

No doubt the Prussian statesman looked back some sixty years, and recalled the time when the great Emperor of the French had his foot upon the Prussian Kingdom, and no magnanimity on the one side or scrupulous sense of honor on the other, prevented the best provinces of Prussia becoming French. Or possibly he remembered the negotiations fifty-five years ago, which determined the present political form of Europe. He may have recalled that "French honor" was sensitive then to the loss of territory, and yet that the Emperor had to give up half Europe which he had annexed. He must have read how unyielding for many months the French were in their view that the limits of France were the Rhine on the east, and how the diplomat of that day, CAULAINCOURT, threatened, as JULES FAVRE does now, to fight to the last man rather than yield the true French boundary. And yet French honor submitted to the inevitable, and accepted an interior line rather than the famous river, and bore with the loss of innumerable provinces.

Danish honor, too, was sensitive, but it had to endure the loss of Norway, and see its annexation to Sweden. Saxon honor was tender, but Saxony was compelled to lose half its territory. The little Republic of Genoa was proud and irritable, but it saw itself summarily united with the Kingdom of Sardinia. Lombardy was conferred, with as little ceremony, on Austria. Holland and Belgium were manipulated as the Great Powers chose, and Germany was reconstituted. Even British honor submitted to the loss of Java, and the Dutch to that of the Cape Colony and other colonies. In more recent years, Austria has been obliged to give up her wealthy Italian provinces, and France herself has, without the smallest consideration for Italian honor, forcibly annexed Nice and the adjacent country. Within three years, most of the smaller potentates of Germany have been compelled to swallow their scruples of honor, and permit their territories to be incorporated in Germany and Prussia. French honor, no doubt, dictated the upholding of MAXIMILIAN, and keeping possession of Mexico; but sentiment must give place to stern facts, and when the United States appeared on the field, the Emperor quietly retired.

It is very hard, undoubtedly, to be beaten in a great war; but then all nations have at some time experienced this disagreeable fortune, and have accepted the consequences. One natural result of defeat is the loss of territory. What could have been more painful to the proud Sclavonic race, which, for half a century, had never known a defeat, than to accept the dismantling of their finest fortress and the loss of the Black Sea as a naval station? Yet even Russian honor bowed to what could not be avoided, and accepted the disgrace.

If a nation throw down the glove in a great war, she must accept the consequences; and one of them is disaster and a possible loss of provinces. The French nature is not differently constituted from that of other European peoples. What they have so often borne, the great nation must bear. These very provinces were obtained from Germany just as the Germans are seeking now to wring them from France. It is useless for English journals like the Spectator to appeal to the higher morale and magnanimity of the Prussians. Both nations are alike. They seek all they can get after a victory. It is true that Germany has frequently been cheated of her fair share in the plunder of war, because her destinies were never in her own hands. Now she controls herself, through the shrewdest statesman of modern times, who is not at all likely to let any glamour of sentiment keep his hands from a liberal share of the just spoils of the campaign.

If the cases were reversed, and NAPOLEON were at this moment besieging Berlin, and King WILLIAM were a prisoner in Versailles, how much consideration would probably be shown by the compeers of M. FAVRE for the "sensitive" German honor? Who would speak then of magnanimity requiring the French not to take the Rhine Provinces, and of the danger and sin of driving Germany to despair, because France wanted Rhenish Prussia beyond the river? All men would say that the King of Prussia did wisely to give up a few Provinces, rather than expose his whole people to invasion, and leave the country stripped bare of every necessary of life. Even in the interest of revenge and honor, they would say it is better to accept the trifling loss and disgrace, and regain strength for another and more fortunate campaign. What are needed now in France are statesmen bold enough to accept the inevitable.

Naturalization Frauds.

The organs of the "Ring" continue to denounce the acts of Congress to prevent frauds in naturalization, and to deny that any frauds have been perpetrated. We beg leave to call their attention to the unimpeachable evidence on this subject given by Judge GEORGE G. BARNARD.

The Sun stated, about two weeks since, on the authority, as it said, of Judge BARNARD, that he had never in his life signed more than four thousand naturalization papers. Now, it appears from the records of the Supreme Court, kept in the County Clerk's office, that between the 8th and 23d days of October, 1868, (fourteen working days,) ten thousand and ninety-three persons were naturalized in the Court over which Judge BARNARD presided, and on each and every one of these 10,093 separate papers appears the initials, G. G. B.

We do not propose to dispute Judge BARNARD's word, but we cite it to show that in his own Court-room, and necessarily with the connivance and assistance of clerks or officers of the Court, his signature was forged to at least 6,093 judgments, upon all of which certificates of naturalization were issued. Of these 10,093 judgments, 9,711 were on minor applications—that is, by persons who claimed to have arrived in the country before attaining the age of eighteen. In these the production of a "declaration of intention" is dispensed with, the facts of residence for five years, and of being under eighteen at the time of arrival, being proved by a witness, who in each case swears to his personal knowledge of these facts. One Deputy Sheriff swore to such facts in 251 cases. Two notorious Eighth Ward thieves, whose names appear almost weekly in the Police reports, were witnesses, one in sixty-eight cases, the other in 454. In fact, of the whole forty thousand "records of naturalization" manufactured in the Supreme and Superior Courts of this City in the month of October, 1868, less than twenty per cent. are free from palpable evidences of fraud, perjury and forgery. That thousands of certificates were issued of which there is no record whatever is equally certain.

Mr. HOFFMAN is the receiver of these fraudulent votes, and is in the enjoyment of the power stolen from the people by means of the wrongdoing. Will he, or will the tools and organs of the villains whose puppet he is, dare to discuss publicly the means by which he attained his present position? There is not a Democratic paper in the country, not even the venal World, which would venture to accept such a challenge.

The Street-Cars.

The car companies have at last met one demand of the traveling public in lowering the fare to five cents within City limits. There is in this concession, even though in a measure forced upon them against their will, an encouraging promise of progress. Perhaps in time they will even come to show some attention to the physical comfort of their passengers, and we shall be permitted to travel on their vehicles in a way more befitting human beings, and less like cattle going to the shambles. In time, too, they may give us, as the rule and not as the exception, conductors who show some acquaintance with the usual decencies of life, and who do not conceive it to be necessary to paw and haul with unwashed hands the ladies and gentlemen whom untoward fortune has transiently brought into their clutches. Altogether, if the companies keep on in this spirit, we may not have to live until the millenium to be able to ride in street-cars which shall be at once cleanly, speedy, not overcrowded, and directed by persons who regard themselves as the servants, and not as the masters of the public.

These things we hope for in the future, not too impatiently. The companies have made a beginning, and with that we must, for a while, content ourselves, so far as regards impositions which it is at all possible to endure. But in one thing endurance has ceased to be endurable, and that is in the countenance given by conductors to the thieves and ruffians who, on certain of the roads, continually, by their blasphemy and obscenity, make the cars unfit for ladies and intolerable for gentlemen. Blasphemy and obscenity, of course, are only the mildest forms of that exuberant vitality of our local rough, which culminates in pillage, violence and murder. But even these playful and merely innocuous eccentricities are sufficient to make the place of their exhibition uncomfortable enough to all persons of delicacy and refinement. On one night last week a Sixth-avenue car was thus defiled by certain blackguards, said to be Central Park hackmen, who went so far as to hustle and severely maltreat a woman who attempted to leave the car to escape their indecencies. The conductor was cowed or in collusion with the offenders, for he did not even remonstrate or call the Police, and the respectable male passengers, as usual in New-York, did not venture to interfere. For outrages of this nature the companies are not, of course, to be held responsible, unless in not appointing more resolute men as conductors, or in failing to hold such as they have to a stricter account. And before the election it is perhaps idle to hope that Mr. TWEED's policemen can be permitted to alienate Mr. TWEED's voters by checking them in their favorite pastimes. But after November, may we not trust that our gracious ruler will see the necessity of curbing the vivacity of his followers, at least in public places where decent men and women are unavoidably thrown into contact with them?

A Misplaced Switch.

"The cause of the accident was a misplaced switch," is the sentence which, almost invariably, forms a portion of the numerous published accounts of railroad accidents. No experienced traveler can doubt that an alarming list might be compiled of "very nearly" accidents, in which a misplaced switch would play an equally prominent part. Without thus increasing the indictment, however, there is enough said about this eminently unfortunate portion of railway mechanism to cause serious uneasiness to that section of the public whose acquaintance with such matters is necessarily intimate. People whose ordinary avocations require them to travel some ten or twenty miles daily are becoming as nervous as the temperament of our proverbially risk-daring countrymen permits. The number of "switches" in a given length of line is gravely computed as a basis for the chances of a possible "telescoping" or "smash-up." The only people to whom the "misplacements" are matters of apparent indifference are the railroad companies' directors—a feeling which, it may be devoutly hoped, will change into active interest so soon as some pending actions are brought to an issue, and the losses by homicidal carelessness throughout the year are reckoned up.

In nine cases out of ten such accidents are strictly preventable. A "misplaced" switchman is the cause to whom should be referred the greater part of the killing, wounding and damage to property which accompany his blunders. In some cases he is naturally ignorant or careless; in others overworked and underpaid; at times he is imperfectly instructed. But in very few cases does it happen that the mechanism of the road is the primary cause of disaster. In the accident which occurred a few days ago on the Morris and Essex Railroad, a fireman's hand was smashed, a locomotive and twenty-one cars of one train were reduced to "a heap of ruins," and three cars of another train were thrown off the line. It is, perhaps, comforting to know that rolling stock paid the chief penalty on this occasion; but the question of what would have happened had the "heap" consisted of well-freighted passenger-cars is uncomfortably suggestive.

The Press of this City has time and again remonstrated against the criminal mismanagement which, unfortunately, distinguishes certain lines of railroad, and with but partial effect. In this instance, self-interest may accomplish what a regard for public safety and common humanity is powerless to insure. A few mangled bodies are of but trifling importance; a dead loss of $25,000 or $30,000 worth of rolling stock is a business item of peculiar interest. Upon this fact we rely to secure a thorough reform in railroad matters. An invention known elsewhere would also materially add to the security of passengers in this regard. The movement of the switch-lever pulls a wire turning a fan-signal some four hundred yards nearer the train, and the engineeer is thus enabled to see at a glance if the switch is properly set. The expense of such an arrangement, trifling as it is, would probably be objected to, but considering existing conditions of danger, the subject would form a fit subject of legislative enactment. The Erie line might fitly be chosen as the first upon which to try this preventive experiment. Those to whom its services are a necessity will gladly hail any measures which promise to render insurance tickets less necessary objects of daily investment. The destruction of the cars containing a portion of Mr. LENT's circus will probably have created a doubt in the mind of the Company as to whether it would not be cheaper to pay well for highly skilled labor than to employ careless and inefficient servants; and it is highly desirable that this reasoning should be extended to the class who are generally, though not in that particular instance, responsible for the casualties which we have to record. In any case let it be fully understood that "misplaced switches," wherever found, will insure the prompt arrest and punishment of the official to whose carelessness their misplacement is due.

The impossibility of obtaining justice against the Fisk and Gould clique was illustrated afresh yesterday. A suitor was hustled about between Judges CARDOZO and BARNARD, and ultimately obliged to retire from the Court as he entered it, the protests of his counsel, Mr. EVARTS, producing no more effect on Judge BARNARD than rain water on a duck's back. It is a complete farce for any citizen to attempt to obtain his rights against FISK and GOULD, and, as we have conclusively shown this week, the cause of the scandal is mainly Gov. HOFFMAN, who now appeals to the people to give him a fresh lease of office. Democrats themselves have long entertained grave doubts whether it was possible to carry the State this year with the burden of TWEED, Gov. HOFFMAN's master, upon their shoulders. "Let the Ring keep rule here, and New-York State is lost to the Democracy next Fall; the Union is lost in 1872." So said the World in February last. It tries to unsay it all now, but its shameless apostasy cannot blind the public to the truth which it uttered a few months ago.

The details given in our special dispatch of the internal condition of Paris under siege, presents the outlines of a vivid picture of intense social unrest. The elements of disorder are coming to the surface, and it will require a strong and firm hand to keep them in check. Let Paris remain true to herself, and she may defy the invaders for a good many weeks to come. Let the spirits of her defenders be damped by the occurrence of civic broils and the presence of a pervasive distrust, and she must fall an easy prey to the first determined attack. Paris seems in this respect an index of the state of France. There is at once an absence of some master-mind to inform her with a determined and steadfast purpose, and the want of a patriotism overmastering enough to render all minor political differences of no account before the hour of national extremity.

M. THIERS is one of the effete statesmen of the age. Amid the politics of the Empire he remained a perpetual reminder of how little France would have gained from an Orleanist régime. Under the Republic he seemed destined to show how the foreign policy of the restored monarchy would be as dangerous as the delusions of the departed Empire. It never seems to have occurred to M. THIERS that France never had any special claim to act on the political Providence of Europe. Hence we find him still justifying his uncompromising hostility to the completion of Italian unity, by the statement that he feared it would encourage the unification of Germany. "Blood and iron" has accomplished the latter fact in a way that ought to convince M. THIERS and all international busybodies, of the necessity of minding their own business.

Belgium seems to have got a sort of white elephant on her hands, in her large quota of French prisoners. The Turcos evidently consider their quarters at Beverloo of a somewhat circumscribed character, and are showing symptoms of insubordination. The Kingdom of LEOPOLD II. probably finds it difficult enough to keep some eighty thousand men of her own upon a war footing, without the disagreeable necessity of feeding some extra thousands of vagrant Frenchmen who invited themselves across the frontier.

It is satisfactory to find that the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals continues to make steady progress. As a highly essential sphere of labor we would recommend to Mr. BERGH that his officers should take cognizance of the state of the down-town streets, situated in the region, say between the foot of Broadway and Fulton Ferry. Day after day horses are compelled to drag heavily laden produce wagons over a surface which more resembles the first roadway through a forest cutting than the street of a great city. The amount of positive suffering inflicted upon the brute creation by the scandalous neglect of the streets along which are situated our chief warehouses, falls as much within the province of Mr. BERGH as the loss of time it entails, ought to form the subject of accusation by our importers against the misgovernment of this City.

Some years ago, in the course of his ethnological researches, Prof. HUXLEY made intimate acquaintance with the aborigines of Australia—a race which, not excepting the Digger Indians of our Pacific territory, is more degraded than any other, out of Africa, belonging to the human family. When we remember that Prof. HUXLEY possesses this knowledge, it becomes painful to hear that he has lately, and in public, solemnly declared that a walk through the streets of Liverpool had shown him fully as many and as degraded savages as he had seen in the remotest of the British Colonies. "It had been a great shock to him," he said, "to see unwashed, unkempt brutal people, side by side with indications of the greatest refinement and the greatest luxury." The growing savagery of some of the poorer classes in large towns is becoming a frequent and serious topic of discussion in Europe; and, despite the eternally vaunted march of civilization, the diffusion of Mr. MATTHEW ARNOLD's "sweetness and light" seems obstinately confined there to the richer and better educated parts of the community.

On the 1st of October, the City railroads, with a single exception, lowered their price to five cents, in accordance with the terms of their charters. This step, enforced by the law, ought now to be voluntarily followed by the omnibus lines and the hackney coaches. Nearly all minor expenses incident to Metropolitan life, are much too high. The proportion of aggregate earnings, absorbed by almost everything, from omnibus fares to a restaurant dinner, is absurdly large. The time has gone by for war prices, whether in great things or in little ones. A hundred dollars for a coat, four or five dollars for a decent dinner, and fifty cents for a pot of tea, might do very well with gold at 150 or 200, but such rates ought now to be obsolete. The shrinkage in prices has not thus far borne a legitimate relation to the fall in gold, and traders of every sort will consult their own true interest by assenting to more reasonable rates.

"Liars Should Have Good Memories."

From the World, Oct. 6.	From the World, March 31.
"The TIMES made an onset on what, in good Jenkins-like dialect, it called the 'magnificent palatial residence,' the 'stables fitted up with imperial splendor,' and the 'co'ossal fortune' of Mr. TWEED."	"Mr. TWEED was worth less than nothing when he took to the trade of politics, for he was a bankrupt. Now he has great possessions, estimated all the way from five millions of dollars to twice as much. We are sorry not to be able to give his own estimate, but, unluckily, he returns no income. But at least he is rich enough to own a gorgeous house in town and a sumptuous seat in the country, a stud of horses and a set of palatial stables."

WASHINGTON.

Real State of Affairs in Alabama—Prospects in South Carolina—The New Issue of Currency—Preparations for the New Darien Expedition—Various Matters.

Special Dispatch to the New-York Times.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 8.—The roorback about affairs in Alabama, telegraphed from this city to one of your Democratic contemporaries, last night, has no foundation beyond the facts which appeared in the TIMES dispatches of the 5th inst. Alabama has been for months under the command of Gen. CRAWFORD, as a district in the department commanded by Gen. TERRY, and the President deemed it best for the peace and security of the State to give Gen. CRAWFORD the same power as if he were in command of a separate military district. No protest from the Governor regarding the presence of troops has been received, and none is likely to be. That peace and good order reign at present in the State is owing to the efficient and popular administration of Gov. SMITH, which has compelled the respect of even its bitterest opponents, and not to the policy of violence, bloodshed, and murder, advocated by the Democratic organ of New-York, as a means of producing Democratic victories.

PROSPECTS IN SOUTH CAROLINA.

Senator SAWYER, of South Carolina, arrived here last night, on his return to that State. He has been seriously ill for the past four weeks at Melden, Mass., but is sufficiently recovered to travel. His advices from South Carolina are to the effect that the Republicans will carry the State by a large majority, and elect three if not all of the Congressmen.

PERSONAL.

E. G. EVANS was today appointed Register of the Land Office at Booneville, Mo., in place of WILLIAM WHIST, one of the bolters, removed.

Senator MORRILL, of Vermont, arrived here today.

THE NEW ISSUE OF CURRENCY.

The applications for banking facilities under the law authorizing $54,000,000 new national currency do not yet aggregate one-fifth of that amount, a fact which seems to indicate that the expansionists greatly exaggerated the pressure for more currency, and that the squabble over the redistribution features was entirely unnecessary. It is now the opinion in the Controller's office that this $54,000,000 will be more than sufficient to supply calls for currency from whatever section of the country they may come.

THE NEW DARIEN EXPEDITION.

Commander SELFRIDGE, who has been here for several days in consultation with the naval authorities about renewing his explorations of the Darien routes for a canal across the Isthmus, left to-night for the North. He will return about the middle of November to receive his final instructions, and will sail as soon thereafter as the necessary arrangements can be completed. The composition of the expedition will be about the same as last year. The Nipsic is now on her way from the fishing grounds to the Washington Navy-yard to be made ready for this service. Commander SELFRIDGE yet entertains hopes that he may discover a practicable route, although the general opinion of the members of his expedition is unfavorable. Capt. SHUFELDT, commanding the Tehauntepec expedition, will sail in the Kansas early next week, and will probably touch at Vera Cruz on his way.

Dispatch to the Associated Press.

THE MASSACHUSETTS INTEREST CLAIM.

On the 8th of July, 1870, Congress passed a law making payment to the State of Massachusetts for interest paid by her on money expended by said State on account of the war with Great Britain in 1812 and 1815, making an appropriation therefor of some $678,362. In 1820, when Maine became a separate State, the State of Massachusetts transferred one-third of this claim to that State. Both States have transferred their claims to the European and North American Railway Company of Maine to aid in the construction of said railway. In accordance with the provisions of this act the Secretary of the Treasury is authorized to pay the said claim for the uses above mentioned, and is directed to issue certificates of denominations not less than $100,000, to run five years, at an annual interest of four per cent. These bonds will be ready and be issued to the Treasurer of Maine, in trust for the Company, on the 1st of November. The bonds were printed in the Note-printing Bureau of the Treasury.

NEW-YORK CUSTOM-HOUSE CONFIRMATIONS.

A number of nominations for the position of store-keepers and inspectors in the New-York Custom-house, forwarded by the Collector of that port, were today confirmed by Secretary BOUTWELL, and the appointments will consequently be made.

THE FENIAN PRISONERS.

Major JAMES HAGERTY, MICHAEL SCANLON (editor of the Irish Republic) and JOHN KEARNEY, arrived here today as a committee from the Irish Republican Central Club of New-York, to ascertain the effect of a petition they sent to the President a week ago, asking for the pardon of Gen. O'NEIL and his Fenian associates now in prison. They ascertained that the President will this week issue an order in compliance with their petition, and the request of numerous others, including many who also disapproved of the late Fenian raid.

There will be no general order or pardon issued with regard to the release of the Fenians now imprisoned in this country because of the violation of the Neutrality laws. Whatever pardons may be granted, will be made out singly. The papers in several cases are already being prepared at the Attorney-General's office for the signature of the President.

CABINET MEETING.

The Cabinet was about two hours in session today, but it is understood that nothing of more than ordinary business was transacted.

CONSCIENCE MONEY.

The President received, today, a letter from Louisville, Ky., signed by a repentant sinner, in which was inclosed five hundred dollars, which the writer desired to have placed to the credit of the Conscience fund. The money was accordingly sent to Treasurer SPINNER.

Swedenborgian Preaching in Steinway Hall.

The Swedenborgians of this neighborhood have hired Steinway Hall, for a series of Sunday evenings, and intend holding religious services there, with lectures by their most eminent preachers explanatory of their peculiar doctrines. The opening service and lecture will be given to-morrow evening, commencing at 7½ o'clock, by Rev. CHAUNCEY GILES. His subject will be "The Second Coming of the Lord a Spiritual and not a Personal Coming." Mr. GILES has the reputation of being a most eloquent speaker, and those interested in religious novelties will doubtless be well repaid for going to hear him.

TENNESSEE.

The Secession Element of Tennessee Democracy on the Aggressive—Its Spirit and Purposes as Illustrated in Conventions and by Party Leaders—Andrew Johnson and the Conservative Union Element on the War-Path—The Situation in East Tennessee.

From Our Own Correspondent.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., Friday, Sept. 30, 1870.

No sooner has the ascendency of Democracy in Tennessee been assured beyond doubt, than the spirit and purposes of its organization are boldly developed. The adoption of the new Constitution and the qualification of a Supreme Court thereunder in full sympathy with the party, are the guarantees for future ascendency which have provoked the defiant, aggressive spirit of the ex-rebel element in the party. The country has well understood the revolutionary and disorganizing spirit of the National Democracy, as shown by its undisguised war upon the validity of the Thirteenth, Fourteenth and Fifteenth Amendments to the Constitution of the United States, but the people were hardly prepared to believe that a State Convention and recognized party leaders would at this day dare to deny the final settlement of the doctrine of secession, a principle which was the very foundation of the war. But, nevertheless, such has been the developments of the past few weeks in Tennessee. About the 1st of the month a State Convention met at Nashville to nominate a candidate for Governor and proclaim a platform of principles for the party. It was almost entirely composed of ex-rebel officers, and was entirely controlled in that spirit. The platform of resolutions put forth boldly demands from the General Government a recognition of the sovereign rights of the States. The nominee of the Convention, pressed through by acclamation, was Gen. JNO. C. BROWN, who was a prominent officer in the rebel army. Such was the personnel and spirit of the Convention. Well, it now appears from the testimony of ANDREW JOHNSON and Col. COLYAR, one of the unsuccessful aspirants for the gubernatorial nomination, that the Committee on Resolutions of the Convention had two sets of resolutions presented for their consideration. One set, known as the Greenville-Johnson resolutions, fully and unequivocally recognized that the doctrine of secession was settled finally by the results of the war. The other set ignored the whole secession question, but significantly demanded for the States a recognition of their "sovereign rights." The Committee spurned the Johnson resolutions, but adopted the sovereign States Rights set. COLYAR charges, in a letter published after the Convention, in which he announces himself as an independent candidate for Governor, that two of this Committee on Resolutions were of the same Committee in the Convention in 1868, and there fought against resolutions admitting the secession question finally settled. Mr. JOHNSON, in a speech made at Gallatin, in Middle Tennessee, openly charges that the Convention boldly proclaimed the doctrine of secession and refused to recognize the results of the war, and that such a course was ruinous to the prospects of the Democracy North, and dangerous to the future peace of the State. He has publicly refused to support the nominee of the Convention, and proclaimed war against the rebel element of the party. When we consider the character of the leading men of the party—whose names made up, in a large measure, the roster of HOOD's army—when we consider that their Convention studiously and publicly refused to recognize secession as settled, but on the contrary talk of "sovereign" rights, in the same spirit they did in 1861—when we consider that in the Convention the entire Union Conservative element of the State was ignored, we are certainly justified in looking with alarm and suspicion upon the future purposes of the party.

INTEMPERATE SPEECHES OF PARTY LEADERS.

But it is not alone in the State Convention that such a spirit was predominant. A few weeks ago in the Congressional Nominating Convention in the Third District, composed in part of East Tennessee counties, a like spirit ruled in the deliberations of the party. A Col. COMBS, of White County, made a speech to the delegates defining his position as follows, as reported in his own party paper:

> "I am not a Republican. I am not a Radical. I thank God for it. I am a rebel, and I am proud of it. [Applause.] A Conservative is a man that is on the fence. I repeat, that I am no Radical, no Republican, I am no Conservative, I am a Rebel-Democrat! [Applause.] If anybody wants to make anything out of that, let them hump themselves. I am not afraid to say where I stand."

In the same Convention the contest for the nomination for Congress lay between Col. JAMES, an ex-Union officer, and a Col. GARRETT. The Convention had balloted some fifteen times without a result, when Capt. DUFFY, of the Carthage Vidette, thus addressed the Convention:

> "I urge the Convention to vote for Col. A. E. GARRETT, a man who wore the blue and fought me during the war, but who since the war has worn the gray in his heart, and who, I believe, is now as good a rebel as I am."

This indorsement was sufficient, and on the next ballot GARRETT was nominated and accepted. In some portions of the State the Democrats are discussing the question whether or not to send men to Congress who can take the iron-clad oath. A large portion of the party oppose sending such men, and their reasons are given by a correspondent of the Memphis Ledger, as follows:

> "No man who can take the iron-clad oath is worthy to represent the people of Tennessee, and if such a man be nominated he will not receive the hearty support of the Democracy, and defeat and shame will be our portion. We are tired of trimmers and negative men."

Further on the same writer says:

> "In the name of common sense, send no man to represent us who can swear that he never gave aid or comfort or sympathy to the South in her struggle for freedom."

These are some of the expressions illustrating the spirit and purposes of Tennessee Democracy, and I commend them to the consideration of reflecting men North. Those who believe that the Democracy of the South are ready in good faith to admit the results of the war, or that we can yet, with safety, permit that party to gain control of the General Government, may find food for study in this development of the slumbering fires that need but countenance and license to spread and give us further trouble.

STRENGTH OF THE REPUBLICANS.

In this bold aggressive policy of the Democracy, the Republicans of Tennessee find some ground for hope. The recent elections have already shown that in East Tennessee we are stronger than for years, and the disaffection of the whole Conservative Union element, headed by JOHNSON, we hope is but the beginning of a rupture which must prove irreconcilable and general. There are thirty thousand of this class of Conservatives in Tennessee who will not support BROWN for Governor, or vote with the Democracy in local elections. Gen. STUBBLEFIELD, late Chairman of the Democratic State Executive Committee, has denounced the whole movement as dangerous and revolutionary. It is difficult to tell just now what course JOHNSON and COLYAR and their supporters will take; but one thing is certain, and that is, they will not support the new element, or give it any countenance. The Brown party represents almost the whole rebel party in the State, and is still strong enough to control. It is this assurance that makes them so intolerant and uncompromising to the Union element of the party. JOHNSON is very bitter, and says the men now spurning him are carrying about in their pockets his pardons....The Republican nominee, Hon. W. H. WISENER is canvassing the State, and will poll a largely increased vote....The re-election of Hon. HORACE MAYNARD from this district is absolutely certain—he is stronger, today, in his district than ever before....The answer of Senator BROWNLOW to the Hamilton-Booker Native Southern Union Men Convention, which they proposed to hold in this city, is a withering document, and it, together with the comments of the Chronicle of this city, will probably nip it in the bud.

OMEGA.

Additional nominations have been made for Congressmen in the following districts:

NEW-YORK.—Thirty-first District, NORMAN M. ALLEN, Democrat; WALTER L. SESSIONS, by another wing of the Democratic Party.

LOCAL POLITICS.

The Citizens' Association.

Mr. NATHANIEL SANDS has abused the good nature of the venerable PETER COOPER, President of the Citizens' Association, so far as to induce him to send us for publication a series of resolutions passed by the Association in April last, in which they express their continued confidence in the aforesaid SANDS and the other agents in their employ. We published these resolutions at the time, and see no reason why we should be called upon to repeat them now. If they are offered as an argument to show that there is at the present time no dissatisfaction among the members of the Citizens' Association with regard to the management of that concern, we must regard it, in the language of the lawyers, as a non sequitur. Mr. COOPER has, indeed, been persuaded to add to the April resolutions the following rather vague sentence, which the reader can take for what it is worth:

> "Since the passage of these resolutions Mr. SANDS and the other officers and agents of the Association have been and are zealously and faithfully engaged in a course of efforts to promote the substantial welfare of the City; and in the work of the Association have continued to deserve and receive the confidence and approval of its members."

It is refreshing to learn that Mr. SANDS is engaged in a "course of efforts to promote the substantial welfare of the City," and if the Citizens' Association appreciate that kind of work, and are willing to pay for it, no one will begrudge them the luxury; but we must be permitted to tell them that to everybody outside of the Citizens' Association the course of Mr. SANDS' efforts seems to tend exclusively to promote the substantial welfare of the SANDS family.

Ninth Ward Woodford and Kaufman Campaign Club—Addresses by Sigismund Kaufman, H. D. Lepau, Chas. S. Spencer, and Others.

The regular weekly meeting of the Ninth Ward Woodford and Kaufman Campaign Club was held, last evening, at the Bleecker Building. The President of the Society, Mr. GEORGE LAYLAND, having declared the meeting opened for business, introduced SIGISMUND KAUFMAN, who, exhorting the Republicans to renewed and untiring efforts in this canvass, said: You are called upon this Fall to see that a fair vote is polled in the City and County of New-York. Hitherto you have been robbed of your dearest right—the franchise; and now if you don't make the effort to recover it, the Government of the whole country will be totally destroyed. If you will be active from this moment until the election day, you will have a fair ballot; and it is your bounden duty to see among yourselves that such shall be the case on the 8th of November next. Let there be no impediment thrown in the way of any man who has a right and has a desire to vote. See that the ballot-box be kept intact. It is impossible in this Democratic City for the Republicans unaided to elect their county officers. You must convince the country that you are working to break up the Tammany system of stuffing the ballot-box and repeating, ere you can hope for the earnest co-operation of the voters therein, in sweeping away the Tammany Ring Government and purifying the City of New-York. Your opponents are industriously laboring to re-elect Gov. HOFFMAN, who also looks ambitiously forward to the Presidential chair. Let us, true Republicans, counteract his supporters in such a successful manner as to convince JOHN T. HOFFMAN that it will be useless for him to look for his nomination at the next National Convention.

Addresses were made by Hon. H. D. LEPAU, C. S. SPENCER, and others, after which the meeting adjourned.

Our Economical City Council—How Our Taxes are Reduced and the City and State Run in Debt.

The Eleventh Assembly District Woodford and Kaufman Campaign Club met last night at No. 937 Broadway, indorsed the State ticket, and invited the co-operation of all Republicans in the district in securing its election. Messrs. WHITE, LATHROP and GARRISH were appointed a Committee to take the necessary steps to compass this end.

Mr. JOHN H. WHITE offered the following, which were unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That the corruption and extravagance of our present State and Municipal Government, as illustrated by an increase of taxes, an increase of idle and vagabond office-holders, with an increase of salary not earned, and an increase of crime, calls aloud for condemnation at the hands of every good citizen in the land, and we will do all in our power to wipe out and utterly to exterminate this horde of officials, who eat out our substance, and make the Government of the City and State a hissing and a by-word in the land.

Resolved, That we have abiding faith in the wisdom, integrity and economy of the Administration of President GRANT, under whose careful guidance the national debt is being gradually extinguished; taxes new and unusual in their character, but made necessary by the great, wicked and unreasonable rebellion, have been largely reduced, and peace and prosperity have again returned to bless the whole land. The malice and envy of his detractors cannot win from him the confidence and affection of the American people.

Resolved, That our condidates for State officers need no commendation at our hands. We can in confidence challenge the closest scrutiny into the public and private life of each. Though they may be maligned by unscrupulous demagogues, they will be vindicated by the people at the polls in November by a triumphant election, and we pledge ourselves, each to the other, to do all in our power to secure that result.

Judge WHITE, in speaking of our City Government, said that the canal receipts had decreased over a million dollars, while the expenses had increased more than a million last year, so that the State lost two millions, and if this process continues, instead of the canals bringing a revenue they will run us in debt. The local taxes are assumed to be cut down, but the assessments have been increased, and there are over $100,000,000 worth of improvements to be taxed also, so that the taxes are in the aggregate three-quarters per cent. higher than ever before.

Mr. SAMUEL J. GLASSEY and others also addressed the meeting.

Fourteenth Ward Working Men's Central Union—Grand Republican Demonstration—Plain Speaking About the Ring.

The Working Men's Union of the Fourteenth Ward held a special ratification meeting last evening at the Fourteenth Ward Hotel, corner of Grand and Elizabeth streets. The hall was crowded to the doors. WM. J. VANCE, President, occupied the chair. A number of pamphlets published by the Union Republican Congressional Committee, Washington, D. C., entitled Land and Labor, proving the benefits of the "Grant land policy," were distributed among the audience. After a few remarks from the Chairman,

JOHN HICKLER addressed the audience in a speech of great vigor. He was very forcible and unsparing in his denunciations of the Tammany Ring for their political delinquencies.

Col. GEO. W. SUTTON, after a brief but telling speech, submitted a series of resolutions, in the reading of which he was repeatedly interrupted by loud bursts of applause. The resolutions charge the Tammany Ring with enriching themselves and their friends at the public expense and keeping the City overtaxed for their own benefit. The working men pledge themselves to support the Republicans, in order to oppose "those piratical scoundrels," and to do so effectually they will support the Republican ticket agreed to at Saratoga.

About a dozen men started up to second the resolutions, and they were carried by acclamation.

JOSEPH H. MCGLORE spoke of Col. W. R. ROBERTS, the Democratic candidate for the Ward, as a smooth-spoken politician who coined Fenianism into dollars.

HUGH COLEMAN gave an instructive account of the doings of the principal Democratic leaders, and showed how it was they became rich. He was especially severe on HOFFMAN and TWEED, the former for his ungrateful repudiation of Ireland in refusing to preside at a Fenian meeting, although he owes his election to the Irish vote. He put it to the audience whether TWEED could satisfactorily explain how he made $10,000,000 in ten years, or $[illegible] a year.

At the conclusion of Mr. MALONE's speech, the meeting was adjourned.

Twenty-first Assembly District Woodford and Kaufman Club.

A regular meeting of the Twenty-first Assembly District Woodford and Kaufman Campaign Club was held last evening at the corner of Third-avenue and One Hundred and Nineteenth-street, WILLIAM HAW presided. ALLAN COOPER, from the Committee appointed to wait on Mayor HALL in reference to the appoint- of election inspectors in the new election districts, reported that they called several times at the City Hall, but were unable to see his Honor. A communication was received from Marshal SHARPE asking for a list of good Republicans in the district, to fill the position of special marshals at the polling-places. A committee of five, with the President and Secretary, was appointed to draw up this list. After repeated calls, CYRUS T. FROST gave a description of the proceedings at the Republican General Committee on Thursday night. He mentioned in particular the resolution of Col. DUGANNE, that no Tammany office-holder should be eligible as a delegate in any nominating convention, and spoke in terms of condemnation of ABRAHAM BROWN, Jr., who made repeated and unaccountable mistakes in counting the votes. JAMES M. THOMPSON also denounced strongly Mr. BROWN's conduct, and styled him a spurious Republican in the pay of Tammany. The Chairman then made a stirring address, urging all the members of the Club to work earnestly for the success of the Republican State ticket, and strive to defeat the Tammany men in the Republican ranks. He concluded by an eloquent eulogium of Gen. GRANT and his administration. On motion of Mr. FROST, the President was directed to move the expulsion of ABRAHAM BROWN, Jr., from the Republican Association of the Twenty-first District. A public was announced for next Friday, after which the meeting adjourned.

Soldiers' and Sailors' General Committee.

The General Committee of the Soldiers' and Sailors' Associations met last evening at No. 937 Broadway, to hear the report of the Executive Committee upon a proposition to coalesce with the other Soldiers' and Sailors' General Committee. The report says that the Executive Committee have considered the preamble and resolutions presented to them by Col. A. J. H. DUGANNE, and they are of the opinion that no difference or want of harmony can exist between this Committee and any organization of loyal soldiers and sailors who in good faith intend to further the election of WOODFORD and KAUFMAN. They are of the further opinion that this Committee of Soldiers and Sailors, duly and properly organized by representative soldiers from every Assembly District of the City of New-York, and being entirely independent of any political organization, do not feel any necessity of submitting their organization for countenance or recognition to the Committee suggested in the resolutions referred to, or to any other committee of citizens.

Reports of the condition and membership of the local associations were then given, after which the Committee adjourned.

Political Brevities.

The Democratic Convention of the First Assembly District of Queens County, met on Tuesday, but adjourned to Oct. 12, without action. The adjournment was caused by the appearance of a pretended delegation from Flushing, consisting of many of those who were defeated at the late primary there, and led by BENJ. W. DOWNING, a Congressional aspirant from that place. These persons were opposed to the nomination of Hon. WM. TURNER, the regular candidate from Flushing. The adjournment is of interest to Republicans, because, should the claims of Flushing, as represented by Mr. TURNER, be disregarded, after the other two towns have had the Assemblyman for five years, and the nomination was conceded to Flushing, so much indignation will be felt in that town at the injustice, that a good Republican candidate can easily be elected by Flushing votes, and the same disaffected vote would probably insure a Republican Sheriff.

A well-attended meeting was held last night by the Tenth Assembly District Union Republican Association, Mr. J. M. PATTERSON, Jr., presiding. Speeches were made by Hon. Sigismund Kaufman, G. W. Bungay, Daniel Sullivan, Solomon Spitzer and G. S. M. McWaters.

The Hudson County Tammany men who met last week, had another meeting, last night, at Taylor's Hotel, Jersey City, for the purpose of taking steps to perfect an organization. JOHN MCPHERSON and others were present. The session was a short one.

The Democratic Convention for the Third Assembly District of Hudson County, N. J., met last night, at Saake's Saloon, No. 144 Newark-avenue, Jersey City. The names of Messrs. DOREMUS, HAYDEN and MURPHY were presented. Twenty-nine ballots were had, and the Convention adjourned, at a late hour, to Monday night, without having fixed upon any candidate.

GENERAL NOTES.

RICHARD D. WHITLEY has been nominated for Congress, by acclamation, in the Second Georgia District.

WM. JOHNSON, and JOHN Q. A. KING, are urged by their respective friends as candidates for Governor of Kentucky.

Nearly all the Democratic newspapers in Missouri have declared in favor of J. GRATZ BROWN for Governor.

Miss FANNY MOORE, of Augusta, Me., is to be a candidate for the office of Register of Deeds in Kennebec County.

The colored Republicans of Newburg have an efficient campaign club, and are working hard for the election of WOODFORD and KAUFMAN.

The True Georgian thinks that a visit from President GRANT at this time would prove a blessing to the Republican Party in Georgia.

The Republicans are doing good work in the closely-contested districts of Pennsylvania. The prospects of success look more favorable every day.

Hon. WM. B. STOKES, of Tennessee, has written to a friend in Washington to say that he is now able to sit up, and that he will be a candidate for re-election.

In one district in Nebraska eighty voters have to travel from thirty to sixty miles in order to deposit their ballot, and they anxiously ask for a voting place nearer home.

The Democracy of the Twenty-second Pennsylvania Congressional District seem to have entered into a treaty offensive and defensive with the Republican disorganizers.

The candidates for the Indiana Senatorship in place of Mr. MORTON, are Gen. GRESHAM, who is a candidate for Congress in the First District, Judge ORTH, Gen. NELSON, Minister to Mexico, and Col. CUMBACK.

The recent registration of voters throughout Maryland shows that some 36,000 names of colored male citizens have been added to the voting population. The offices of registration reopen on the fourth Monday of October for corrections. In Baltimore City, Alleghany County and Baltimore County the offices will be open for three days, but in the remainder of the State but two days.

The Chicago Republican says: "The Democracy of the Fourth, Illinois, District are not satisfied with the catch they made in nominating P. L. CABLE, Esq., for Congress. He is absent on a pleasure tour in Europe, and the most they have been able to get out of him is, that 'if elected, he would serve!' This by telegraph. Not a word about the $50,000, or remainder of the principles.

The bolting Republicans who assembled at Schenectady, recently, and nominated Rev. SAMUEL MCKEAN for Congress, to oppose JAMES M. MARVIN in the Eighteenth District, have adopted a set of resolutions in which they set forth that the nomination of Mr. MARVIN was the result of fraud, and could not consequently be binding on the party. "We do this," say the bolters, "because Mr. MARVIN is not himself a loyal Republican, having sympathized with JOHNSON in 1866; countenanced hostility to Col. JAMES B. MCKEAN, the candidate for Secretary of State, in 1867; opposed the election of Gen. FRENCH as the Republican nominee for District-Attorney in Saratoga County in 1868; and openly bolted the candidates for Senator and Member in 1869, lending himself personally to the work of debauching Republicans into the support of ISAIAH BLOOD and SEYMOUR AINSWORTH, well knowing that the effect of his course was to help elect a Democratic Legislature that would repeal the Registry law, and fortify Tammany in its ill-gotten power."

Immigration at the Port of Boston—Comparison with Previous Years.

The Boston Post of the 5th inst. says: "The General Agent of the Board of State Charities, who is superintendent of alien passengers for the port of Boston, reports the number of immigrants arriving here in the year ending Oct. 1, 1870, as 30,069—the largest number ever received here in one year. For the previous year, ending Oct. 1, 1869, 26,414 immigrants landed here; there was therefore an increase this year of 3,655. Of the 30,069 immigrants this year, 16,736 were males and 13,353 females—that is, forty-four per cent., or a little more than two-fifths, were women and girls, and fifty-six per cent., not quite three-fifths, were men and boys. Of the whole number, 6,630, or more than a fifth part, were fifteen years old and under; 11,618 were between fifteen and twenty-five; 10,373 were between twenty-five and fifty, and only 1,448 were over fifty years old. More than three-fifths, or 18,248, were under twenty-five, which was probably about the average of all. The greatest number from any one country came from Ireland—11,321; 8,278 were English, 1,0[illegible] Scotland, 144 from Wales, and 3,668 from the [illegible] provinces; making a total of 24,492, or [illegible] five-sixths of the whole from the British [illegible]. From Germany came 3,341, from the [illegible] Islands 611, from Sweden 551, from [illegible], France 195, Holland 149, Switzerland 77, West Indies 63, Poland 49, Denmark 31, Spain 21, Africa [illegible], Russia 12, Belgium 11, other countries 8. The immigration from Germany has almost entirely ceased since the war."

POSTAL CONVENTIONS.

Postage to New-Zealand, Vancouver's Island, British Columbia and the Republic of Salvador.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 7.—The announcement is made by order of the Postmaster-General, a postal convention has been concluded between the United States and the Colonial Government of New-Zealand, establishing an exchange of correspondence between the two countries by means of the direct line of colonial mail packets plying between San Francisco and New-Zealand as well as by such other means of direct mail steam-ship transportation as shall hereafter be established with the approval of the respective Postal Departments of the two countries. This convention will be carried into operation on the 1st of December, 1870, and establishes an international letter postage of twelve cents, (six pence,) per each single rate of half an ounce or fraction thereof, the payment of which is compulsory, and the letters so prepaid in one country are to be delivered free of all charge in the other.

Letters posted unpaid, or prepaid any amount less than one full single rate of postage cannot be forwarded. But insufficiently paid letters on which a single rate or more has been prepaid, will be forwarded, charged with the deficient postage for collection on delivery. Each country is to collect its own postage only on printed matter of all kinds, whether sent or received at the following rates, viz: United States postage on newspapers is fixed at two cents each, and on all other articles of printed matter four cents per each weight of four ounces or fraction thereof whether sent or received.

The New-Zealand postage on newspapers and other articles of printed matter sent to or received from the United States are the same as charged for domestic postage by the laws and regulations of that colony. Provision is made for the transit through the United States, as well as the conveyance by United States mail-packets of the correspondence in closed mails, which the New-Zealand Post-office may desire to transmit by way of the United States to British Columbia, the British North American provinces, the West Indies, Mexico, Central and South America; and it is also provided that prepaid letters from foreign countries, received and forwarded from the United States to New-Zealand, shall be delivered in said colony free of all charges whatsoever; and that letters received in New-Zealand from the United States, addressed to New-South Wales or Australia, will be forwarded to its destination subject to the same conditions as are applicable to a correspondence originating in New-Zealand and addressed to those colonies. New-York, Boston and San Francisco are the offices of exchange on the side of the United States for all mails forwarded to or received from New-Zealand under the provisions of this convention. The mail packets of the Colonial line, plying between San Francisco and New-Zealand, make their departures regularly from San Francisco on the 10th of each month. In addition to this convention, it may be remarked that the establishment of a direct line of steamers between San Francisco and New-Zealand, brings the British mails to Australia and the other colonies in Oceanica quicker than by way of the Suez Canal, and, therefore, the British Post-office avails itself of these advantages to forward its closed mails from and to these colonies by way of the United States.

VANCOUVER'S ISLAND AND BRITISH COLUMBIA.

A postal convention has been concluded between the United States and the Provinces of Vancouver's Island and British Columbia, establishing and regulating the exchange of correspondence with those Colonies on the same basis as that adopted in the postal convention with the Dominion of Canada. This convention, which goes into immediate operation, establishes a combined single rate of international letter postage of six cents per each half-ounce or under, if prepaid at the mailing office in either country, and ten cents if posted unpaid, to be collected on delivery. Letters which have been prepaid less than one full single rate of postage are to be transmitted as wholly unpaid; but insufficiently paid letters on which a single rate or more has been prepaid will be forwarded charged with the deficit postage only, for collection on delivery. Letters fully prepaid, received in either country from the other, are to be delivered free of all charges whatsoever. Letters posted in either country for delivery in the other may also be registered, provided the full postage chargeable thereon, together with a registration fee of five cents be paid at the mailing office. Newspapers, pamphlets, magazines, and all other articles of printed matter are to be charged with the regular domestic rates of postage, to and from the frontier line in the United States, and in the provinces respectively. The offices of exchange on the side of the United States are, Boston, New-York, San Francisco, Portland, Oregon, and Olympia, Washington Territory.

REPUBLIC OF SALVADOR.

A postal convention establishing and regulating an exchange of correspondence between the United States and the Republic of Salvador has been concluded, and will be carried into immediate operation. It provides for a regular exchange of correspondence between the two countries by the ordinary route of communication, via the Isthmus of Panama, comprising letters, newspapers and printed matter of every kind, and originating in either country and addressed to and deliverable in the other. The rates of postage hereafter to be levied and collected in the United States on correspondence posted in this country, and addressed to the Republic of Salvador, or posted in that country and received in the United States, are as follows: On letters, first, ten cents per each single rate of half an ounce or under; second, on newspapers, and unsealed circulars, two cents each; third, on pamphlets, periodicals, books, and other kinds of printed papers, one cent for each ounce or fraction of an ounce. It is particularly to be observed that the above postage charges on correspondence of all classes, must be fully prepaid at the mailing office on matter sent, and collected at the office of delivery on matter received. Any correspondence, therefore, posted unpaid, or insufficiently paid, cannot be forwarded. These rates are not in full to destination, the Republic of Salvador levying and collecting a postage charge on each article of correspondence, whether sent to or received from the United States. The offices of exchange on the side of the United States, are New-York and San Francisco. Postmasters will levy and collect postage accordingly, on and after this date.

Interesting to City Tax-payers.

From the New-York Free Press.

At this time there is no subject presented to the people for discussion so vital to their present and future as the bonded debt of the City. It is the sink into which all the financial iniquities of the men who rule and rob the tax-payers are thrown. No man outside of the Ring—the great centre of which is WM. M. TWEED, and around whom revolve in concentric circles RICHARD B. CONNOLLY, PETER B. SWEENY, A. OAKEY HALL, and political satellites of lesser note—can say with certainty what the exact total of the debt which money-lenders hold against the "Mayor, Aldermen and Commonalty of New-York." And yet every dollar of this debt the rent-payers, hard-working men and women, with interest added, if not in the next year, the next Autumn, or the next decade, must at some time pay. Bonds will mature, and unless at exorbitant premiums money is borrowed wherewith to redeem them, the taxes that ultimately will be imposed on all who even breathe the air of the City, to take them up, will be enormous.

The debt of New-York is growing apace. Every year sees millions of dollars added to it; and that upon the almost irresponsible action of men who are too ignorant, if not too corrupt, to know or care how deeply the City may be financially compromised, if only their actions are, while in power, screened from the public eye. The manner in which this debt is increased is pregnant with a thousand evils. It encourages—we say encourages, from the facility with which money can be borrowed in the market on the credit of the corporation—men to commit acts which in unfinancial and governmental circles would be looked upon and punished as heinous offenses against the State, against society, against good morals. When a week or two ago the "Board of Aldermen as a Board of Supervisors" fixed the rate of taxation on real and personal estate at $2 25 (2¼ per cent.) on every $100, the organs of the Ring sent up a general shout, in which it was attempted to convince the people how very cheaply they were governed—the tax per capita (including both sexes and all ages of inhabitants) being a little over $24—supposing the population to be in the neighborhood of 900,000.

At this time we need not enter into any discussion upon the "cheapness" with which we are compelled to keep the state of a great City, and have our precious necks bent in obeisance to law—but we may ask, if, beyond $23,000,000 or $24,000,000 annually, we are not called upon to pay further tithe? Beyond this sum, millions are expended—rather squandered—in the name of the City, which are quietly added to its debt, and which ten, twenty or thirty years hence must, after some fashion, be liquidated. Occasionally, fictitious statements of this debt are set before the public; and sometimes intimations are given that it is rapidly decreasing through good management, and that ultimately, so "exceedingly economical" are the men who have grown "poor" in the public service, will be wholly extinguished. It is thus our tax-payers are cheated, while they are made to believe that never was a city so admirably governed. Partisans in the heat of an election canvass may not stop to question the capacity or the morality of their candidates; but in these hours when the people are at liberty to inquire into the character of their public servants, they should ask them to give an [illegible] of their stewardship. [illegible] compared to a [illegible] there are many [illegible] conduct the business, [illegible] even to those who have [illegible] invested. Now, if the [illegible] managers basely betray their [illegible] and while squandering the money [illegible] them run deeply in debt, would they not commit a great moral wrong? Would it not with them be more than a mere breach of faith?

The debt of the City of New-York, we repeat, will, in a few years, unless some means are taken to check its growth, become too burdensome to bear. The people will surely break down under it. There is but one way in which it can be checked, and that is by our citizens coming up together to the polls, and as one man declaring they will be no longer ruled by those who are so innately corrupt that they smile with contempt upon, and deliberately trample under their feet, the laws framed to conserve society, and the fiats of God ordered for the moral welfare of the human race. And we would here say that Mr. CONNOLLY, if not utterly forgetful of himself, will present the people with a sworn statement of the City's indebtedness without any qualifications, explanations or concealment. He will thus do more to redeem his reputation from the turpitude in which it is now steeped, than by any social, political or financial act possible to him—and, among other things, he should give the number and amount of the bonds issued, and to whom, since his master, WILLIAM M. TWEED, assumed, as Commissioner of Public Works, to control the City through all its departments.

MISS KELLOGG'S GRAND CONCERT.

We take pleasure in again calling public attention to Miss KELLOGG's concert, which takes place to-night at the Academy. Miss KELLOGG's high artistic position, her fine talents and her wide popularity will, no doubt, have their proper effect on the occasion. It is, however, pleasant to know that the surroundings of New-York's favorite prima donna will be altogether worthy. The concert gives promise of being a thoroughly good one. Signori FILIPPI and RANDOLFI are to sing, and the magnificent piano-forte playing of Mr. WEHLI will again delight his admirers. The Philharmonic Orchestra, under Mr. BERGMANN, will give a rich and sonorous background to the entertainment, and Mr. GEORGE W. COLBY will conduct during other parts of the programme. Miss KELLOGG's efforts will thus be admirably seconded, and we cannot doubt will appear to the fullest advantage. We trust that the occasion will prove in all respects worthy of her merits.

MLLE. NILSSON'S SEVENTH AND EIGHTH CONCERTS.

The seventh concert of Mlle. NILSSON was, like the former ones, splendid in programme, execution and in the fashion and numbers of the audience. Twelve pieces constituted the programme, of which HANDEL's "Angels Ever Bright and Fair," VERDI's "Tacea la Notte" ("Trovatore") and the "Betly" cavatina of DONIZETTI were the selections heard from Mlle. NILSSON. Of the first grand effort we have already spoken. The second was received with much pleasure. To the "Betly," however, the palm must be accorded as the chief and most unequivocal success of the evening. Mlle. NILSSON sang this cavatina magnificently and was rapturously encored. Signor BRIGNOLI sang the favorite romanza from "L'Africaine," and, with Miss CARY and M. VERGER, the trio from "Il Barbiere," with his best fire and accuracy; and Miss CARY deepened the excellent impression she has made by a remarkably fine performance of the contralto song "Nobil Signor," from the "Huguenots." Mr. VIEUXTEMPS added greatly to the gratification of the audience by his splendid execution, and the vast assemblage dispersed in the best humor, to the massive strains of the "Coronation March" in the "Prophete." The eighth concert was given last evening. Steinway Hall was filled to overflowing. Mlle. NILSSON repeated the ballad of the "The King of Thule," and the "Jewel Song," from "Faust," and sang for the first time the soprano's share of the miserere from "Il Trovatore," and the ballad, "Auld Robin Gray." The usual enthusiasm, and the usual tendency to transform the platform into a parterre of rarest flowers was displayed. The final matinée of the present series is to be given at the Steinway Hall today, at 1 o'clock.

SEEBACH MATINEE.

Mme. SEEBACH will appear for the first time at a matinee this afternoon, assuming for the last time the part of Mary Stuart, so admirably filled by her a few nights ago.

Musical.

Messrs. J. BAUER & Co., the agents of WM. KNABE & Co., have recently made a large addition to their warerooms by taking in another entire floor of their already vast premises, No. 650 Broadway, to meet the unprecedented demand for the popular Knabe Piano. The history of these pianos is, indeed, a mechanical as well as a mercantile success. For thirty-five years they have steadily advanced in public favor and estimation until they are now deemed a necessity for the success of every well regulated concert and operatic company, and this assertion will prove a fact by their use the coming season in musical circles and public entertainments, to the exclusion of the numberless counterfeits that have so long afflicted the ears of our metropolitan audiences. We notice with extreme pleasure the success obtained by the Knabe Piano, as it is a success founded upon merit alone, and all the more deserved in securing its pre-eminence unpurchased.—Tribune.

In this Changeable Climate of Ours a cold is easily taken, and without due care another will be contracted on top of it—one cold thus running into another, until the accompanying cough becomes settled and confirmed, straining and racking the lungs, and ultimately stimulating the production of tubercles; yet notwithstanding a majority of existing cases of clearly defined pulmonary disease may thus be accounted for, thousands are now carelessly allowing themselves to drift through the preliminary symptoms, under the fatal delusion that they are troubled with "nothing but a cold." How obvious is it, therefore, that a cold should be carefully cared for from its incipiency, and every exertion used to rid the system of its effects? Coughs and colds, pulmonary, bronchial and asthmatic affections are readily cured by that standard preparation, DR. D. JAYNE'S EXPECTORANT, and by promptly resorting to it all fears of dangerous results will soon be dissipated. Sold everywhere.

The exact dimensions of the lots, with the size of buildings, are given in the summary. ROBERTS & McGUIRE also, under the direction of Referee COLEMAN, in a legal sale, disposed of five lots, sold together, on the north side of Fortieth-street, between Seventh and Eighth avenues. The plot is 100x98.9, and brought $26,300, MARY L. CORMACK being the purchaser. A brick stable is erected upon the lots nearly covering the entire premises. The property was sold, subject to a lease expiring April 1, 1875, at a rental of $1,780 per annum.

In addition to the above sales, JOSEPH A. LEVY sold a house and lot on the south side of Fifth-street, 105 feet 8½ inches east of Avenue C, for $20,000. The purchaser was F. COSMAN. These were all the sales made, but, as will be noticed, the amount of property involved was considerable.

Today DINGEE, KETCHAM & Co. hold their auction sale at Rye, in Westchester County, at which a large number of lots will be offered. The sale begins at 1 P. M., and carriages will be in attendance at the Rye Station, upon the arrival of the New-Haven Railway trains, leaving the depot at the corner of Fourth-avenue and Twenty-seventh-street at 9 and 11½ A. M., for the purpose of conveying New-York purchasers to the auction grounds. The sale presents advantages for investment, the property being within an hour's ride by rail from New-York.

Full details of the sale held by A. D. MELLICK, JR., & BROTHER, at Scotch Plains, N. J., on Thursday, will be found below. The prices realized for the lots disposed of show a good average, the property bringing nearly $2,400 per acre. In all, about 180 lots were sold, at the rate of $132 per lot. It is designed to have another of these sales in November, each lot sold was city size, being 25 by 100.

ALABAMA
8 PER CENT.
GOLD BONDS,

THE FIRST MORTGAGE
BONDS
OF THE
South and North Alabama
Railroad Company,

GUARANTEED BY THE STATE OF ALABAMA in American Gold, and secured by First Mortgage of $8,000 a mile to JAMES BUELL and V. K. STEVENSON, Trustees, (which mortgage has been examined and approved by Messrs. EVARTS, SOUTHMAYD & CHOATE,) upon the road, franchises, depots, land grant of over 500,000 acres, rolling stock, and other property of every kind, in addition to the INDORSEMENT of the STATE of ALABAMA, which can only be had as the road is FINISHED, EQUIPPED, and received by the State Engineers, as a first-class road and safe. 90 miles of which have been FINISHED, EQUIPPED, and so received.

The STATE of ALABAMA, in ordering the INDORSEMENT of these bonds, specially provides for the PROMPT payment of principal and interest.

This is a South and North Road from the City and County of Montgomery, with a population of 40,000 inhabitants, and at the head of navigation on the Alabama River, with four IMPORTANT CONNECTING Southern lines to the Gulf and South Atlantic ports; running north 183 miles to Decatur, on the Tennessee River, where it crosses the Memphis and Charleston Road, and CONNECTS with the Nashville and Decatur Road; a DIRECT extension to Nashville, with a population of over 40,000, and at the head of navigation on the Cumberland River.

At Nashville this South and North Alabama Railway connects direct by rail with CAIRO, ST. LOUIS, CHICAGO, LOUISVILLE and CINCINNATI.

This line, during its ENTIRE length from Montgomery to Decatur, passes through the RICHEST COTTON and MINERAL lands of the State, abounding in coal and iron.

The stock paid up and property mortgaged to secure the payment of these bonds and interest is $8,000,000, which, with the indorsement of the State of Alabama, and the high rate of interest, makes it THE BEST AND SAFEST INVESTMENT NOW OFFERED.

To all parties seeking investments paying the largest gold interest with the VERY BEST POSSIBLE SECURITY we cordially recommend the purchase of these Bonds, a limited number of which can now be had at NINETY-FIVE and accrued interest.

A FIRST-CLASS INVESTMENT.
Cherry Valley, Sharon and Albany Railroad
FIRST MORTGAGE
Seven Per Cent. Convertible Bonds.
INTEREST PAYABLE JUNE 15 AND DEC. 15,
AT THE METROPOLITAN NATIONAL BANK, IN THE CITY OF NEW-YORK.

THE CHERRY VALLEY, SHARON AND ALBANY RAILROAD connects Albany, by way of Cobleskill, with the largely frequented watering places, Sharon Springs and Cherry Valley. It runs through a very rich agricultural country, thickly settled, and many thriving villages. The length of the road is twenty-two miles from Cobleskill to Cherry Valley; it is perpetually leased to the ALBANY AND SUSQUEHANNA RAILROAD, which road is again perpetually leased to the DELAWARE AND HUDSON CANAL COMPANY. The lease made to the latter Company provides that they shall run and keep in first-class order the Cherry Valley, Sharon and Albany Railroad, the latter to receive fifty per cent. of the gross earnings. THE ROAD IS THOROUGHLY WELL BUILT AND EQUIPPED, AND HAS RUN REGULARLY SINCE THE 15TH OF JUNE LAST. ITS EARNINGS HAVE BEEN:
June......[illegible]
July......[illegible]
August......[illegible]
OF WHICH FIFTY PER CENT. IS PAID TO THIS ROAD, AND IT IS THUS DEMONSTRATED [illegible] GAGE BONDS. There is no doubt that the business in future will increase vastly, and it is not extravagant to estimate the earnings of the next year at double those of this year, thus making privilege of conversion a valuable one, as the stock will no doubt soon earn dividends of ten per cent. per annum.

THE CAPITAL STOCK IS $300,000, WHICH HAS BEEN ALL SUBSCRIBED AND PAID UP IN CASH. The whole issue of Mortgage Bonds is $300,000, which is the only lien on the entire property. The trustees of the mortgage are J. Pierpont Morgan, of Dabney, Morgan & Co., and [illegible], Vice-President of the Farmers' and Mechanics' Bank, of Albany.

The bonds bear seven per cent. interest, and are convertible into stock at the option of the holder.

Fifty thousand dollars of the bonds have been sold, and we offer the remaining $250,000 AT 87½ AND ACCRUED INTEREST, AND DO NOT HESITATE TO RECOMMEND THEM AS AN UNDOUBTED A 1 BOND, WHICH IS FULLY EQUAL AS A PERFECTLY SAFE INVESTMENT TO ANY FIRST MORTGAGE BOND QUOTED AT THE STOCK EXCHANGE.

SEVEN PER CENT.
Consolidated Mortgage Sinking Fund Bonds.

The Lake Shore and Michigan Southern Railway Company, for the purpose of providing for the payment of its several mortgage debts as they become due, has executed a mortgage to the Union Trust Company, of New-York, as trustee, upon the whole of its railroad and branches, payable on the 1st day of July, in the year 1900.

COUPON BONDS of $1,000 each will be issued, with interest at SEVEN Per Centum per annum, payable semi-annually, on the 1st day of JANUARY and JULY in each year, and REGISTERED BONDS of $1,000, $5,000 and $10,000 each, without Coupons, interest at SEVEN Per Centum per annum, payable quarterly, on the 1st day of JANUARY, APRIL, JULY and OCTOBER, in each year, principal and interest payable at the office of the Union Trust Company of New-York.

We call the attention of investors especially to this class of REGISTERED BONDS, which, on account of the SECURITY AFFORDED AGAINST LOSS BY ROBBERY, FIRE, OR OTHERWISE, and the PAYMENT OF QUARTERLY INTEREST, offer an investment peculiarly desirable.

THE COMMERCIAL CONVENTION.

Meeting of the National Commercial Convention—The Mississippi Levees and Other Subjects—Change of the Title of the Convention—Adjournment.

CINCINNATI, Ohio, Oct. 7.—The Southern Commercial Convention met at 9½ o'clock A. M. But few members were on the floor. After prayer by Rev. Dr. M. T. BRIGGS, a resolution providing for a committee, to report at the next Convention whether the railroads will not pass students to the colleges at half fare, was tabled. Mr. BOWMAN, of Kentucky, offered a resolution, which was adopted, providing for the appointment of a Committee on Education, to report at the next meeting. Gen. BANKS presented a resolution providing for the appointment of a committee to present to Congress the proceedings of the Convention with regard to the Southern Pacific Railroad. Adopted.

THE LEVEES.

Mr. BRYSON, of Missouri, Chairman of the Committee on Permanent Levees on the Mississippi, presented a report, including a resolution, asking aid from the General Government. Mr. REIMAN opposed the resolution. He said the Convention was filled with wishes for the aid of States and municipalities, but could do nothing for themselves. What was the use of talking about State rights? When Uncle Sam sends a Brigadier to reconstruct the people they object. But when he sends an engineer with an appropriation behind him, the people will receive him with open arms. The report was adopted.

POSTAL AID AT NEW-ORLEANS.

Mr. BURMELL, of Louisiana, offered a resolution declaring New-Orleans entitled to the same or similar subventions for postal steam service to foreign ports as have been extended to Atlantic ports. Referred to a committee.

TAXATION.

The Committee on Continuous Water Line Communication between the Mississippi and Atlantic seaboards presented a report in favor of the untaxed water communication from the Ohio River to the seaboard, and requested the Committee to memorialize Congress in regard to the completion of the James River and Kanawha Canal survey, with a view of furnishing a canal one hundred feet wide and eight feet deep, carrying boats of 500 tons. Adopted.

THANKS.

Mr. B. ABLE, of St. Louis, offered a resolution of thanks to Cincinnati for the hospitalities tendered the delegates. Gen. BANKS seconded the motion in a short speech, and the resolution was adopted by a unanimous vote.

RAILWAY GAUGE.

Mr. COLE, of Tennessee, offered a report from the Special Committee on Railroads recommending uniformity of gauge, and the removal of all obstructions to free passage over all roads; asking of the General Government most liberal legislation; expressing the sympathy of the Convention with the Northern Pacific Railroad; declaring the expediency and justice alike of the demand for the same aid to the Southern Pacific Railroad as has been accorded to the Northern; urging on Congress the renewal of the grants to railroads in the South that have lapsed by the late war, and declaring in favor of preventing unnecessary obstructions to railroads to cross rivers. Adopted.

FROM THE PRESIDENT.

A communication from President GRANT, declining an invitation to be present was read.

TITLE OF THE CONVENTION.

The special order was taken up, which was a resolution to change the name of the Convention to the National Commercial Convention. Mr. COPERS, of Georgia, explained his previous remarks in regard to this matter by saying that he acted with a view to obtain an interchange of ideas. He had been pleased to hear such manly utterances as had already been heard on this floor. It gave him pleasure to see here evidences of true national unity, and he favored the change of name. Mr. MACODE, of Arkansas, thought it proper that this suggestion should come from the South. It was eminently proper that, having assumed a national character, the sectional and objectionable name should be dropped. Mr. BRIEN, of Tennessee, recited the history of the Convention, from its origin at Bristol to the present, and declared the eminent propriety of a change of name. A vote was taken by the members rising, and was unanimous in favor of a change of name. The announcement was received with applause.

RAILWAY AID.

Mr. FORESCHY, of Texas, reported in favor of aid to trans-latitudinal roads from Buffalo to Charleston; to Saginaw via Cincinnati; to Savannah; Chicago via Louisville; to Mobile, Marquette and New-Orleans. He said the demands of commerce are not along the latitude but across them from one climate to another. Report adopted.

THE NEXT MEETING, AND OTHER BUSINESS.

Mr. COOK, of Ohio, from the Committee to fix the time and place for the next Convention, reported in favor of Baltimore, and on the third Monday in September, 1871. Resolutions of thanks to President GARRETT and Vice-President BANKS, were passed unanimously.

Gen. BANKS replied, saying that he was greatly impressed with the importance of the action of this Convention, and would speak everywhere in its honor. He suggested that the late war originated outside of parties, and the removal of its consequences, and the adoption of principles that would render separation hereafter impossible, must also originate outside of partisan organizations.

The report asking Congress to charter a road from St. Louis, via Louisville and Knoxville, to Norfolk, was reconsidered, and, after debate, adopted. Resolutions asking emigration societies and others to extend aid to the thousands of of German citizens thrown out of employment by the war in France, with a view to introducing them and their industries into this country, were adopted. President GARRETT returned thanks to the Convention for the courtesy extended to him, and said rarely had so much good been done in so little time. The influence must be for good. Not one word of bitterness had fallen from the lips of any one. This is because the sentiments of the people have been uttered free from the influence of party. The people must recognize this as a genuine expression of the feeling of the whole country. He closed by welcoming the next Convention to the City of Baltimore. The Convention then adjourned to meet next year in Baltimore.

The banquet will take place to-night at Pike's Hall.

THE TURF.

The Jerome Park Races—Second Day's Programme.

Today is the second day of the Jerome Park Fall meeting. The racing commences with the Jerome Sweepstakes for three-year-old fillies of $300 each, half forfeit, with $500 added, one mile and three-quarters. There are nineteen entries, and the starters are Mr. MORRIS' ch. f. Remorseless, CLARK & GRINSTEAD'S b. f. Flash of Lightning, H. P. MCGRATH'S b. f. Susan Ann, BOWIE & HALL'S ch. f. My Maryland, and THOMPSON & FRANKLIN'S br. f. Lady Petry. In the pools sold at the Club-room last night, the above five horses sold nearly even, Lady Petry bringing $60, Remorseless $55, Flash of Lightning $50, Susan Ann $45, and My Maryland $40.

The second race is the Maturity Stakes for four-year olds, of $200 each, half forfeit, with $1,200 added, the second horse to receive $300 out of the stakes. The distance is three miles, and three only of the twenty entered will run. These are D. MCDANIELS' b. f. Oak Leaf, W. R. BABCOCK'S ch. c. Helmbold, and A. BELMONT'S b. c. Glenelg. Helmbold is the favorite in the pool-betting, bringing $100; Glenelg $55, and Oak Leaf $5.

The third race is for a purse of $500, mile heats, with Corsican, Judge Curtis, Rapture and Norton Colt entered. Judge Curtis sells for $150, Corsican $100, Rapture $15 and Norton Colt $10. This will be a highly-interesting race, for Corsican has apparently recovered his great turn of speed, and the contest with Judge Curtis will be exciting and close.

The next race is a selling sweepstakes of $25 each, play or play, with $500 added; one mile and a quarter. The entries are R. B. Connolly 108 pounds, Whirlwind 90 pounds, Merry Thought 82 pounds, Edenton 93 pounds, Luray 90 pounds. Connolly sells for $80, Merry Thought $15, Edenton $30, Luray $10, Whirlwind $5.

The last event is the hurdle-race for a purse of $500, for which the entries are Oysterman, R. B. Connolly, Biddy Malone, Julius, Tisdale and Eminence. In the pools Oysterman brings $50; Biddy $40, Eminence $20, field $15. Eminence's starting is doubtful.

Prof. Van der Weyde on Animal Magnetism and Spiritualism—Reichenbach's Experiments Explained by Natural Law.

A large and most intelligent audience was present, last evening, at Plimpton Hall, to listen to a discourse by Prof. P. H. VAN DER WEYDE, M. D., on Animal Magnetism and Spiritualism. The Professor, after showing the great power of attraction exhibited by electricity when brought into use by the electro-magnet, gave a summarized history of MESMER, the author of that school of philosophy which contended that the human body was a magnet and that diseases might be cured by the operation of mesmeric influences, classing MESMER and his associates among the humbugs of the past century. He then took up the subject of spiritualism, and narrated his own experiences when making it a matter of philosophical investigation. The conclusion at which he arrived was that the whole of so-called spiritualism (more properly spiritism) was a deception, many of the tricks of which he had himself discovered. He alleged, further, that all of the phenomena attributed to supernatural influences when no trickery was apparent might be accounted for by the operation of natural laws, if close investigation were made into the matter in each instance. He also showed how the experiments of REICHENBACH on the "Odic force"—the existence of which force he denied—when put forward in support of the spiritist theory, are in perfect conformity with natural law. Some of these experiments he repeated much to the satisfaction of the audience. A small electro-magnet, placed in the centre of the hall, and connected with a battery, the key for breaking or connecting the current of which was located at the speaker's stand and operated by his foot, at pleasure, was made to answer questions by rapping once, twice, or thrice, as the Professor desired, and much amusement was created by the answers it gave of supposed impalpable essences in the spirit world.

Mr. STEPHEN PEARL ANDREWS, at the close of the Professor's remarks, stated his objections to some of the theories advanced by the speaker. He thought that the imagination might be so wrought upon that a man could be led to believe almost anything, and the duty of true philosophers was, in his opinion, to so "imagimse" the world that mankind would believe nothing save what is materially beneficial to humanity.

Several other gentlemen commented on the matter, after which the meeting adjourned.

A WOMAN STABBED.

A Quarrel and an Affray—An Inmate of an Infamous House Badly Injured—A Woman the Assailant.

A stabbing affray came to light, yesterday, which occurred some time ago among the inmates of an infamous house at No. 173 Lexington-avenue, between Thirty-first and Thirty-second streets, and which is likely to prove fatal to the victim. It appears that there resided in the house two sisters named MATTIE and CARRIE DEAN, and one IDA DOWELL. LOUISA GROVES, another inmate, testified yesterday at the Yorkville Police Court that MATTIE went into IDA's bedroom on the morning of the 29th of September, and struck her in the face and on the breast. LOUISA separated them and hostilities ceased until the afternoon, when LOUISA sent out for a carriage for the purpose of enjoying a ride with IDA. MATTIE followed them into the hall-way, and immediately afterward LOUISA says she heard IDA cry out, "I am stabbed." She turned round and saw CARRIE DEAN holding IDA, while MATTIE stabbed her six times in the breast.

IDA is a very prepossessing young lady, a little more so than the DEAN sisters, both of whom, however, are very good-looking. The cause of the quarrel was jealousy on the part of MATTIE DEAN toward IDA DOWELL; so LOUISA says, but the friends of the DEAN girls tell a different story. They say that these latter have another sister named MAY, a young girl sixteen years of age, who is very beautiful, and who occasionally visits her sisters at their abode of vice. It was on her account that the trouble arose, IDA having said something against her, at which her sisters took offense.

IDA's friends say that the DEAN sisters are from Kentucky, and that MATTIE killed a man, also named DEAN, in that State, some time ago. They further aver that one man shot another on account of CARRIE DEAN.

Dr. LEWIS SCHULTZE sent in a certificate to the Court, stating that IDA DOWELL had been stabbed six times, and that two of the wounds were very dangerous. The inmates of No. 173 say that MATTIE had an ax in her room, with which she threatened all their lives. MATTIE does not deny the stabbing, but says that she did it in self-defense.

The examination took place at 3 o'clock, yesterday afternoon, and the DEAN sisters were held in $1,000 bail each to answer. The inmates of the house did their best to keep the matter quiet, expecting that IDA would recover, but when they found that she was becoming worse, the grew alarmed and informed the Police. The mother of the DEAN girls is said to be stopping at the Washington Hotel, under the name of Mrs. Needy.

Accident on the Morris and Essex Railroad.

At 8½ o'clock yesterday morning an accident occurred at the junction of the Chester branch with the Morris and Essex Railroad, which endangered the lives of the passengers on the Easton express train. A misplaced switch at that point caused the above-mentioned train to run off the track at a high rate of speed about 300 yards from where the switchman had signalled "all right." The engine was thrown on its side, and the engineer, M. S. BALDWIN, who stayed at his post, was somewhat bruised. The conductor, J. M. SMITH, was severely cut in the head, and an old unknown man received very severe bruises. It is almost miraculous that no lives were lost. The switch-tender, by whose carelessness the accident happened, immediately absented himself from the scene. A special train was made up, and the passengers were delayed but about two hours.

Funeral of Rev. Henry Murphy, S. J.

The funeral services of Rev. HENRY MURPHY, S. J., aged thirty-eight, who died of consumption at the residence of his brother-in-law, JOHN BRACKEN, Esq., No. 296 Henry-street, Brooklyn, on Wednesday last, took place at the Church of St. Francis Xavier, in West Sixteenth-street, yesterday. Father MURPHY was born near Enniskillen, Ireland, and was educated at a public school near that city. When eighteen years old he came to this country, and, after a brief sojourn, went to Montreal, where he entered the Theological Seminary of St. Sulpice. After a time he joined the Society of Jesus, and on returning to New-York, was ordained about five years ago. He was for some time back attached to the Church of St. Francis Xavier, in Sixteenth-street. The deceased was the brother of Rev. MARK MURPHY, the celebrated linguist, and also of Rev. P. MURPHY, who died a victim to the yellow fever while ministering to the sufferers from that epidemic on Staten Island, a few years ago. The clergymen and relatives of the deceased were present at the obsequies, and, with Rev. JOHN BAPST, Superior of the West Sixteenth-street house, accompanied the body to Fordham, where it was interred in the college cemetery.

LOCAL NEWS IN BRIEF.

NEW-YORK.

Col. A. J. H. DUGANNE says his action in the Republican Central Committee, Thursday night, was wrongly reported in the papers. He "did not desire to withdraw his resolution, but, at the request of several friends, simply announced that, as the amendment just rejected was a test question, he would, if it might conduce to harmony, which he desired above other considerations, withdraw his resolution with unanimous consent. The consent not being granted, he voted with his friends heartily in favor of the resolution."

We have received a communication from a number of gentlemen who were present during the whole of the trot at Fleetwood Park on Wednesday between Blacksmith Colt, Captain Boyd and Lilly, and who say that the taking of the second and third heats from the Blacksmith Colt was an exhibition of unfairness without a parallel in the records of trotting, and that the presence of Mr. DATER in the stand, and his constant interference with the judges, and allowing Mr. DUFFY, the reputed owner of the horse Lilly, to remain in the judges' stand during the race, deserve the severest censure. The pool-books also show, they add, that one or more of the judges had bets on the race. The evident unfairness of the judges, these gentlemen say, caused the most intense disgust among the spectators, who advised Col. BARTRAM, the owner of the Blacksmith Colt, to withdraw his colt, which he did, with a just expression of his indignation at his treatment.

Rev. HENRY E. BICKERSTETH, M. A., of London, author of Yesterday, Today and Forever, who has been traveling in the United States for the last few weeks, was welcomed by several Protestant clergymen of different denominations at Association Hall last night. We are requested to make the following correction in the report of Dr. MORGAN's sermon at the opening of St. Thomas' Church yesterday. For Rev. Dr. CUTTING, read—Rev. CORNELIUS R. DUFFIE was the founder and first rector of St. Thomas' Church. There was then no such person as Rev. Dr. CUTTING, nor has there been since in the Episcopal Church. The memorial window in the north minor transept is sacred to the memory of JOHN L. ROGERS, a former member of the parish, and has been placed in the church by his widow, residing at Newburg. The corresponding window in the opposite transept is devoted to the memory of Mrs. JULIA A. MOFFAT, and is a united offering of her two daughters CORA and MYRA, and her sister, Miss MATILDA M. MITCHELL.

Yesterday evening, just before the mail train on the Long Island Railroad reached Winfield, it was discovered that some one had been tampering with the switch at that place. The design was evidently to cause disaster. Credit is due the company for the rule by which the switchmen are compelled to examine the switch before the passage of each train. Had not this one been examined a frightful disaster might have been the consequence.

7 PER CENT. GOLD LOAN

ON A COMPLETED TRUNK LINE.

THE INDIANAPOLIS, BLOOMINGTON AND WESTERN RAILWAY,

From Indianapolis, Ind., to Pekin, Ill., 205 miles in length, is completed and fully equipped with new and first-class Rolling Stock, and already EARNING NEARLY DOUBLE THE INTEREST ON THE WHOLE ISSUE OF BONDS, with rapidly-increasing receipts.

The Company have leased the Peoria and Pekin Railroad on favorable terms, making the Western Terminus at Peoria, the second city in Illinois, where through connections are made to Omaha and the Pacific, saving over 65 miles travel from the Atlantic to the Pacific.

The bonds are secured by a First Mortgage on the Road, Equipments and entire Property of the Company, and, BEING ON A COMPLETED ROAD WHICH PASSES THROUGH ONE OF THE MOST THICKLY POPULATED AND RICHEST PORTIONS OF THE WEST, with so many valuable connecting trunk lines East and West, NO SECURITY CAN BE MORE ABSOLUTELY SAFE.

The road passes through six flourishing and growing cities, and numerous towns, which contain in the aggregate nearly 200,000 people, and within twenty miles of the track there is a population of over 600,000.

THE BONDS ARE CONVERTIBLE into Stock at par, which is a valuable option, as MANY OF THE WESTERN ROADS, LESS FAVORABLY LOCATED, ARE AT A HIGH PREMIUM.

Over seven-eighths of the loan has been marketed during the construction of the line. The balance we offer at 92½ AND INTEREST, giving investors the full benefit of the advantages of the completion of the road.

All marketable securities received in exchange at market rates. Bonds forwarded to all points FREE OF EXPRESS CHARGES.
